One fine day in Fishyvile Gregory and Pat were in Gregory's underwater shelter researching about upcoming disasters. They were learning about aliens, giants and all sorts of lethal stuff. They noticed a small red dot on their monster radar but they were not so sure what the dot actually was.

Not until they noticed the chaos outside the underwater shelter...

After peeking outside the fireproof shelter they both said to each other instantly "we need to save our city!" they both blasted out the door at high speed. But they were a little bit too late, they noticed this when they looked straight ahead and saw alien robots that were tearing up apartments. Gregory gulped, Pat could hear his big gulp because of his super hearing ability.

They started speeding towards the robot aliens but then they noticed how big they were. Pat quickly calculated the height of these aliens, the calculator quickly detected and it said that they were 500 meters tall and 250 meters wide. Gregory and Pat officially said that this might be the last disaster that they would ever fight again. They both zoomed and bashed into the robot aliens but Gregory failed and hurt his fin really bad. After a few minutes of fighting, Gregory had an idea so he could hurt the robots.

After a few hours of walking he finally found a nuclear power plant. This liquid from the tanks is what he needs to touch. He opened a barrel and touched the liquid. At this point, Gregory knew he messed up. Glorp was the only noise he could hear. Then he knew again, that he messed up. Gregory had just touched alien goop.

Pat could see from his super sight that Gregory was changing. At this point of time, Pat knew Gregory messed up. Pat could see Gregory changing into a robot alien. Gregory said "I messed up.” At this exact point of time Pat got whacked right in the face, POW! Pat just got a big bruise and he knew he couldn’t fight back.

It’s your chance to change the story, skip a paragraph to let Pat run away or keep going to make Pat keep fighting.

Pat decided to keep fighting. Pat could see Gregory changing back but then he noticed another punch was incoming. Pat blocked it with all his might but he still got a bruise. Pat stumbled and lost his powers for no good reason. Pat was unsure why this happened. He only lost his powers by being in another dimension. He just noticed he didn’t lose his powers. He just got knocked out of the sky. Pat decided at this point he should definitely flee. Read the next paragraph.

Pat decided to flee the battle. Pat fled from the battle and hid in the underwater base. Pat noticed Gregory was normal and he was next to him. “This is horrible, but I have a plan” said Gregory with confidence.

Gregory and Pat had no choice but to bring all population on the world to the moon. Where the space station was. After they had done this they instantly realized that the aliens had taken over the moon. Gregory knew that they had to create a giant apartment in space that everybody in the world could fit in. They threw that idea away. The aliens stopped taking over earth, but one alien was left. He was larger than the others.

At this point They realized this was Glorzert the leader of the aliens. Glorzert is 1500 meters tall and 750 meters wide. Glorzert was the weaker alien though. Gregory and Pat instantly blasted him into space again and the civilization was restored. Everybody lived happily ever after... For now.
