

Hi [name],

I am writing to express my admiration for your remarkable company. As I have been browsing through your site [Site Name], I am truly impressed by the fantastic work you are doing. The way you have built a supportive community around assisting others in the dropshipping industry is truly commendable.

Upon thorough analysis of your company, it has come to my attention that there is a potential opportunity for improvement. I noticed the absence of an email marketing service, which could greatly enhance your ability to connect with customers on a more profound level. As a former dropshipper, I experienced the significance of seeking guidance and valuable tips during my journey. By implementing a daily newsletter, you have the potential to effectively booting the return of customers on your site

I was hoping we could chat about working together on some projects. I'd love to brainstorm ideas for how you can grow your brand even more, and if there are any ways I can help you with email marketing, I have made some email templates that I was hoping to send to you if you gave me a chance to help you on this journey

Kind Regards

Demetris
