

4. Match the words in column A with the words in column B

A	B
Sleep = turn in	exhausted
very tired = exhausted	I am afraid
warm and comfortable = cosy	path
Track = path	turn in
Ruins = remains	cosy
I am scared = afraid	remains

5. Complete the dialogue with sentences a-d

- a. We could never accept money for a service as small as this.
- b. You look so exhausted!
- c. We are travelling as far as New York but it's already dark.
- d. They are freshly baked.

— Good evening! Sorry for disturbing you so late. Can we spend the night with you here? c_____ (1) We feel so tired!

— We are about to turn in, but please, welcome! b_____ (2) Our house is not as luxurious as a hotel but it's cosy!

Please, have a cup of hot tea and some cakes. d_____ (3)

Thank you. I haven't tasted cakes as delicious as these before!

— Please allow me to pay for the room and food you are giving us.

— Oh, no! a_____ (4). We consider you as our guests.

