

General Member FAQs

Do I need to bring my own supplies to club meetings?

Answer: No! If you have your own, feel free to bring them, but we will have supplies ready for you at our meetings

What are Stitch n' chill meetings like?

Answer: Meetings are a fun and casual way to get to know other crafters and work on your own crochet or knitting projects! You can come by any time during Stitch n' Chill meetings and chat with club members about anything craft-related (and enjoy some snacks :)).

Can beginners come to meetings?

Answer: Absolutely! The Stitching Nook welcomes everyone :)

What if I don't know how to crochet or knit?

Answer: Fear not! Our execs are always glad to teach you the skills. We will be hosting a beginner's Stitch n' chill night soon, so stay tuned for more info! 🧶🧶

What if I don't like to crochet or knit?

Answer: No worries, The Stitching Nook is a place for all types of crafts. Embroidery and sewing are other activities you can try if crocheting and knitting aren't your thing! You can also put the 'chill' in Stitch n Chill and come to hang out with us and other members.

How do I get involved with the Stitching Nook?

Answer: Follow us on instagram and join our discord server to get updates on club events and news!

Can I put this experience on my SER?

Answer: Yes! General members that come to at least one of our events can put this experience onto their Student Experience Record at the end of the Winter semester.

Are there any specific themes or challenges for projects within the club?

Answer: We occasionally have themed months or challenges to add a creative twist to our projects.

I want to share my work with other club members, how can I do so?

Answer: We encourage members to showcase their projects through our discord server or send us a DM on instagram if you want to be featured on our Spotlight!

How can I get involved and feel welcomed into the community?

Answer: New members can join our meetings, participate in workshops, and connect with others through our online community. We have a friendly atmosphere, and everyone is encouraged to share their unique perspective and ideas.
