

Dearest ♥

I hold you close to my heart everyday of my life.

You are the beat in my chest,

The air in my lungs,

The thoughts in my mind that I hold so very dear...

I want nothing more than to be with you,

To feel you,

To hold you close,

To mourn with you in your grief,

To release you from your fear,

To heal the wounds that were left by those that came before me.

I want you to dream,

I want to dream with you.

I dream of life,

Now more than ever.

Before I couldn't dream,

I wouldn't dare to.

I didn't want to continue,

There was nothing more for me to give.

But for you,

Dearest,

I yearn for life to keep going,

For time to stop,

To be in a neverending dream with you.

I dream of us.
