

1. Mom answered the door at 8:05 a.m. to Mr. Bridges, a short round man in a blue suit, and Coach Warner, who was wearing a Lake Windsor High pullover.

—Edward Bloor, Tangerine

2. I took the pearls out of my pocket, the three milky spheres the Nereid had given me in Santa Monica.

—Rick Riordan, The Lightning Thief

1. Mom answered the door at 8:05 a.m. to Mr. Bridges, a short round man in a blue suit, and Coach Warner, who was wearing a Lake Windsor High pullover.

—Edward Bloor, Tangerine

2. I took the pearls out of my pocket, the three milky spheres the Nereid had given me in Santa Monica.

—Rick Riordan, The Lightning Thief

1. Mom answered the door at 8:05 a.m. to Mr. Bridges, a short round man in a blue suit, and Coach Warner, who was wearing a Lake Windsor High pullover.

—Edward Bloor, Tangerine

2. I took the pearls out of my pocket, the three milky spheres the Nereid had given me in Santa Monica.

—Rick Riordan, The Lightning Thief

2. Mom answered the door at 8:05 a.m. to Mr. Bridges, a short round man in a blue suit, and Coach Warner, who was wearing a Lake Windsor High pullover.

—Edward Bloor, Tangerine

2. I took the pearls out of my pocket, the three milky spheres the Nereid had given me in Santa Monica.

—Rick Riordan, The Lightning Thief