

Icarus' Full Length F/o List (You asked for it...)

I like a lot of characters. I don't talk about all these characters all the time. If they don't have a tag by their name, they're tagged on my blog under #. °•🐞 unlisted (or by name and source for reblogs). I have a ton of non-romantic f/os, if a character isn't here I probably still like them but this list only covers romantic and the most important non-romantic f/os. Familial titles are rarely literal for me, just vibes-based. Characters organized by source. Sources with an asterisk* are things I haven't finished yet or am anime-only for and would like to avoid major plot spoilers for when possible!*

On sharing: I am mostly uncomfortable sharing my romantic f/os. I do not share Goro Akechi or Don Quixote, I will block or at least unfollow if you also selfship with them. For most other f/os, I am alright sharing with close friends, or if you have a tagging system that lets me filter out your posts about them (and I am always open to discussing a tag system if it comes up!) If we don't know each other and share f/os, please just send me an ask first letting me know and telling me what your tags are so I can filter them before I follow back. Do not reblog any fanart of a shared f/o directly from me, it's very rude and makes me uncomfortable.
