

Try some of these fun Dia de los Muertos Art Activities!

Skull paper cup candle- (print skulls instead of hand-drawing to save time, color and glue to cup) Printable skulls are located at the end of this document- great for younger students

<https://growingupbilingual.com/dia-de-los-muertos-kid-friendly-lanterns-craft/>

Supply needs: White paper cups, markers, printed skulls, small battery-powered candles

Tissue Paper Flowers

<https://www.parents.com/how-to-make-tissue-paper-flowers-8622385>

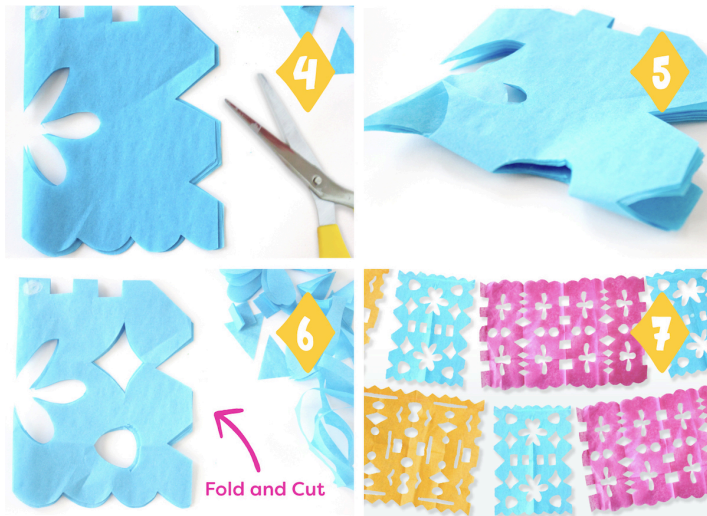

Supply needs- tissue paper (2 or 3 pieces per student), pipe cleaners (one for each flower)

Papel Picado

<https://www.deepspacesparkle.com/how-to-make-a-papel-picado/>

Supply needs- tissue paper (one for each papel picado), scissors, yarn to string together

Monarch stick puppet- optional- use clothes pins instead of popsicle sticks so that it can be clipped onto a display

<https://www.firefliesandmudpies.com/butterfly-stick-puppet/>

Supply needs- printout of butterfly wings, markers, piper cleaners for antenna, clothes pin, tempera paint or glitter (something to decorate the clothes pin)

Skull Rocks

<https://craftsbyamanda.com/skull-rocks/>

Bag of rocks, white paint, sharpies (alternate- use puffy paint like on second photo sample or try googly eyes and other craft supplies)

Q-tip skeletons

<https://www.sandiegofamily.com/for-the-kids/crafts-for-kids/skeleton-craft-dia-de-muertos>

Supply needs: black paper, q-tips, colorful construction paper cut into squares, small printed skulls or have kids hand-draw), glue... Link to printable skulls

Playdoh Skulls

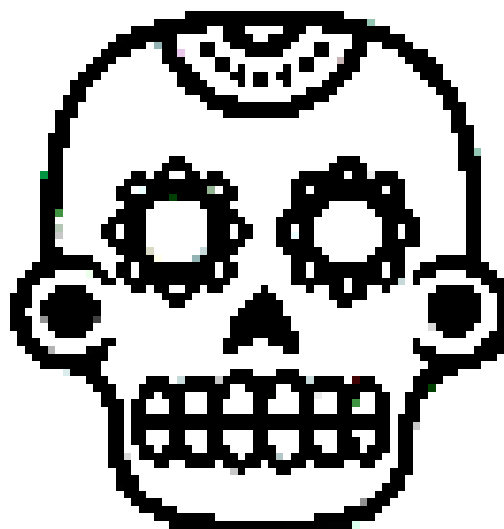

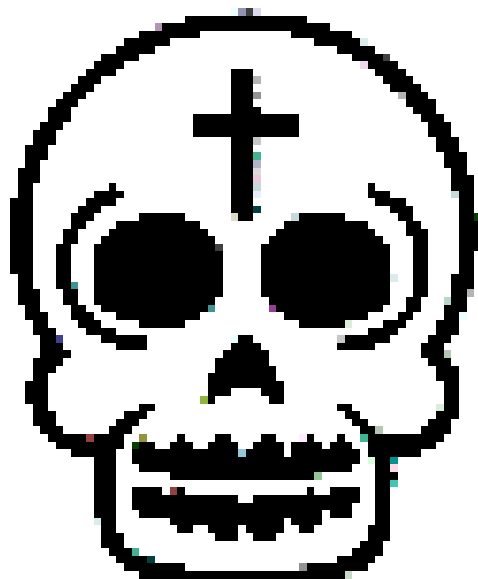

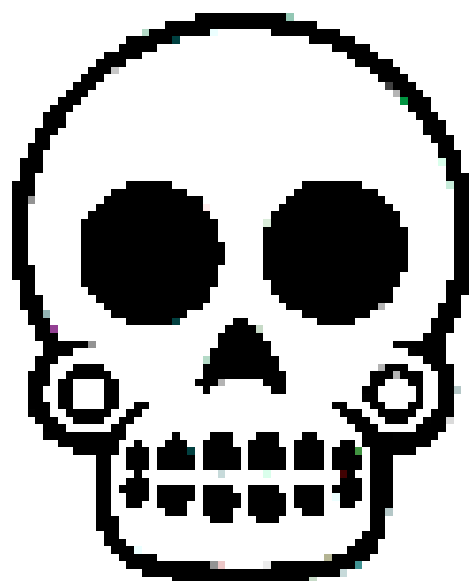

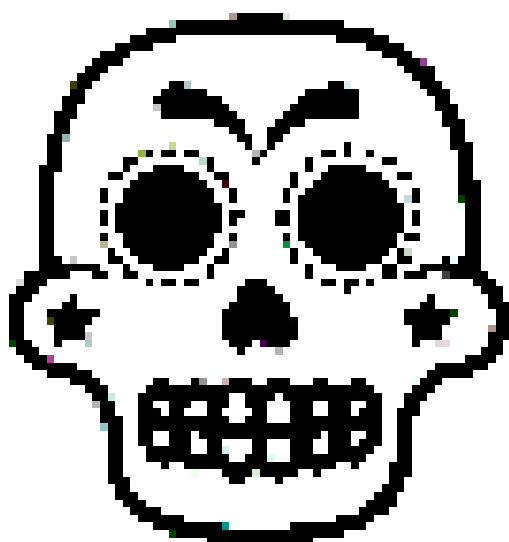

<https://www.pinkstripeysocks.com/2016/10/dia-de-los-muertos-sugar-skull-kids-craft-activity.html>

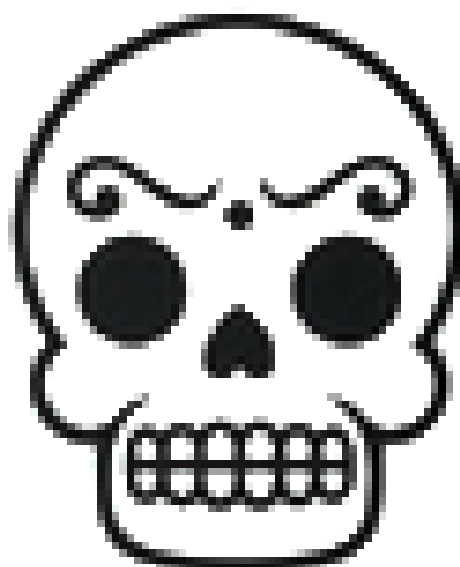

Supply needs- plastic skulls, playdoh in lots of colors, random crafty things like beads, sequins, etc)

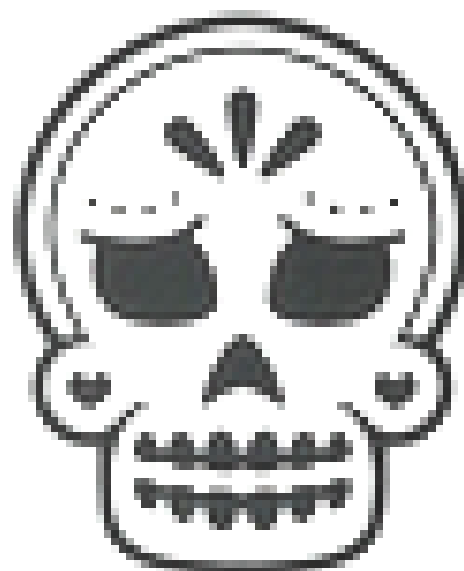

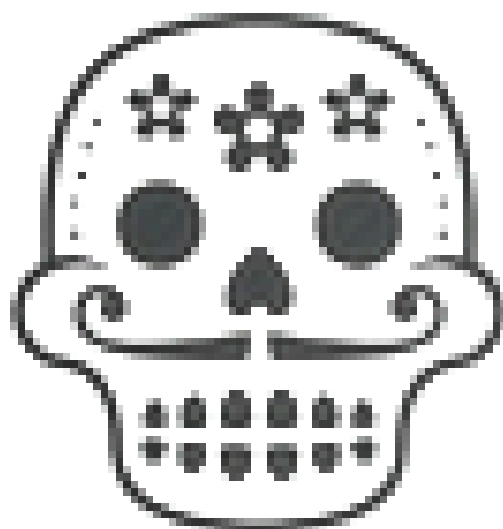

Skulls for Lantern project:

Printable for Butterfly Craft

Printable skulls for Q-tip Skeleton (Also Link to skulls on separate doc)

