Q: Do I get to decide where my Dreamself starts?

A: With Lucid Dreamer, yes.

Q: What kind of places are in Kinakura?

A: Kinakura is a collection of celestial bodies that mesh together. Planets, moons, biospheres. This is evident.

Q: What do we know of Kinakura in world?

A: You know it exists and it's alive. And that's practically it.

Q: Why are people exploring Kinakura?

A: Escaping a dying world. Fueling a capitalist world. What kind of necessities or wants warrants a spaceship anyways?

Q: Are there dreamself towers in Kinakura?

A: Lucid Dreamer Spoiler: ||

Q: Is the dreamself active during cryosleep?

A: Functionally, no. Flavorally, the player character is awake, but frozen. Assume that the dreamself is frozen as well.

Q: How big can the spaceship be?

A: As big as you like it, though your "home" will be much smaller if the initial ship is massive. Ultimately, it may be an escape pod, a section of living quarters and the hallway, or the whole ship itself if it's small enough.
