

Rainmaker GLORY Challenge

The Man/Woman You Are Now vs Who You Want to Be (Keep this the same daily, reminding yourself of who it is you are trying to become) :

The Man I Am Now

- I'm not living very close to God and I feel relatively distant from him
- I'm not involving God in every moment of my life
- Currently, I'm loving God through my mouth but not 100% with my heart
- I'm lazy and I get distracted very easily by all sorts of things
- My ambition to become successful isn't the highest and it somehow decreased, I don't have that burning desire in me
- I don't have a very big confidence and I have a lot of doubt in myself
- I don't keep my own promises because I don't value myself and my word a lot
- I'm more of a talker than a doer

The Man I Want To Be

- I live very deeply in the love and grace of God and he's with me all day, every day
- I feel a deep gratitude towards him for all the blessings he's providing me
- I truly love God with all of my heart and not only with my mouth
- I keep my own promises and I value myself
- I have high confidence and I have a very big self-believe
- I'm always making brave choices and doing the things that need to be done, regardless of whether I want to do them or not
- I dedicate most of my time to hard work and eliminated all laziness in myself
- I have a burning desire to become better and improve myself

Your Reason Why (make this as compelling as possible, keep this the same and pound it into your skull, so you wake up daily with a clear reason) :

- Because I can't keep failing my brother. He has expectations for me and I need to fulfill them. I can't allow myself to keep on disappointing him because he's working hard for our dream every day and I can't sit around and do fuck all. We both have our plan and dream together and I couldn't live normally, knowing it was my fault that we fucked up and didn't achieve our goals. I need to make him proud and fulfill his expectations so that we can make the future that we're dreaming of, a reality!

- After waking up and planning the day, I had a very deep Bible reading session where I gained a lot of new insights and learnings
- As I came home from school, I cleaned up my room real quick and then went back to work for the time that was left over, instead of giving in to my temptation for social media
- My workout was pretty decent, my focus could've been a bit better, but I still got an amazing arm pump

What went bad:

- The first thing that was off, was that as I made myself a cup of tea after reading the Bible, I started to use Haven (Christian ChatGPT) and asked questions about my situation, however, it took me all the left over time in the morning that I wanted to dedicate for work and I didn't even notice it
- After my workout, I spontaneously decided to go to a restaurant with a training partner of mine, which I probably shouldn't have done (money and time-wise)
- As I then got back home, shit hit the fan, tried to set up my FB Ad campaign but then gave up and fully fell into temptation and wasted hours doing dumb shit...

End of the Day Reflection:

Today was by far the best day in a while. Had a great start, woke up at 5 am and felt the deep urge to go back to bed but then I remembered Father Spyridon's teachings from yesterday to deny our flesh and to turn to prayer. 2 Hours later, I managed to read 4 chapters of the bible, write 3 new FB ads and came up with a new outreach structure. After work, I went to the barber and he also did some magic there afterward in the gym I hit a squat pr of 220kg! In the evening I was on my phone here and there for a few minutes put then went back to praying and shifted my focus back to working. Overall, amazing day, completed everything I had planned for today, God is good!

- ☐ Finish Designing Client's Website

End of the Day Reflection:

Even though I didn't complete most of my checklist, this day is still mostly still a massive win. I used my entire evening to read the book of Father Spyridon and it was worth every minute. I got so many new insights about the world and our relationship to God and I felt true peace while reading. The only bad thing about today was that I didn't wake up on time and that I went back to bed even though I should've stayed awake and started working.

Day 1 - 09.09.2024

Desired Outcome for the Day:

→ getting back to grind mode and leaving the past two weeks of failure behind me

Planned Tasks to Achieve it:

- ☒ PowerUp Call
- ☒ Daily Marketing Mastery
- ☒ Writing & Reviewing Facebook Ads
- ☒ Call with my Brother
- ☒ Read 22 Immutable Laws of Marketing

End of the Day Reflection:

- Kind of failed my morning because I fell back asleep and lost around 2 hours there and I didn't do a morning prayer
- I didn't waste a lot of time doing garbage things, only a couple of minutes max, which is pretty good for now and definitely a large improvement, looking back on the last weeks
- The call that I had with my brother today was extremely helpful and eyeopening for both of us
- My training at the gym was really good, had good focus, a crazy pump, and moved a lot of heavy ass weight - great workout in total
- I rarely got distracted and dedicated almost all of my time to the right things and I completed my checklist for today
