

Season Zero in store - Demo, Play and Compete

Dear SolForge Fusion Retailer!

We are extremely excited that you have chosen to stock SolForge Fusion and as an early adopter of the game we have an exciting program just for you - SolForge Fusion Season Zero We will be advertising the stores taking part on www.solforgefusion.com

During Season Zero players at your store will have the opportunity to learn the game, compete in a tournament, and earn renown for both you, the store, and for themselves. Including prize kits for all players in your store.

You can sign up now with your distributor and receive a demo version of SolForge Fusion to make available for people to turn up and play. As a participating store you will receive two Starter Kits, containing 8 unique Half-Decks. Combining and recombining these half-decks will allow your players to experience a variety of different play styles. At the end of Season Zero you will decide which three players will represent your store in the Season Zero Finale.

You may decide how to select the three players to represent your store. You may randomly select three players from those who played, run a tournament, have the best in game story be a deciding factor, or whatever other creative idea you wish to use to decide on your representatives—it really is all up to you

When three players have been selected they will take part in a team event on Tabletop Simulator hosted by Stone Blade Entertainment. Your selected players will not only be playing for themselves, but for extra prizes to be sent to your store to hand out to your community!

Contact your distributor now to secure your demo kit.

A great way to learn the rules is to check out this video by the Professor at the Tolarian Community College:

Once you have your kit confirmed, if you haven't already you should set up an account at www.solforgefusion.com and we will approve you for running events. Follow the instructions here to sign up <https://solforgefusion.com/register-your-game-store>

The below details will be made public to the SolForge Fusion community on our website shortly and we will include all stores who have signed up:

Season Finale Championship: 09/24/22 9am PST

The format for the Season Finale Championship will be unique: a March Madness style, single elimination, event.

As a team of three players, you will play a single best of one game against a member of your opposition team. As there are three total games in the round, the round will be won by the team with two or more wins and they will advance to the next stage.

The tournament will continue until one team remains. In the end, one team will be crowned Season Finale Champions! Victory means prizes for both the champions and the store they represent.

Prizes for the stores!

- Top 32 stores: A set of promo packs to be handed out to players at that store.
- Top 8 stores: A set of playmats to be awarded to players from that store.
- Champion store: the first ever Championship Trophy for SolForge Fusion that can be displayed with pride!

Happy Gaming!
