

SCBWI UTAH/SOUTHERN IDAHO MENTORSHIP PROGRAM
APPLICATION QUESTIONNAIRE

- Name (include pen name if applicable):

- Address:

- Phone (where you are most easily reached):

- Email (address you check daily):

- Link to website portfolio:

- Are you also an author?
If yes, do you have a completed manuscript to go along with dummy or portfolio pieces?

- Are you a current SCBWI Utah/Southern Idaho member?

- Please put an “X” after the category that best fits the work submitted with this application:

 Illustration Portfolio:
 Illustrated Picture Book Dummy sample:

- Submission Title(s) (if applicable):

Please tell us about your project(s).

- If your project is an illustrated picture book dummy, do you have a completed draft?
- About how long have you been working on the submitted project(s)?
- What important information do you think a mentor should know about your submitted project(s)? (This could include intended audience, personal connections, strengths/weaknesses, goals, estimated time to completion, or whether you have an illustrated dummy or a children's illustration portfolio. About 200 words)

Please tell us about yourself.

- Do you have an agent?
- If so, who, and what agency?
- Have you ever self-published?
If yes, then please include titles in "Important information about you." (below)

- Are you actively reading contemporary literature? Please list 3-5 current authors and/or illustrators who influence or inspire your work.

- What important information do you think a mentor should know about you?

(This could include writing background if any, family, day job, career goals, how you came to illustrating and/or writing, or ways you are working to develop your career. About 300 words)

- Please share where you see yourself in the industry and where you'd like to go with illustration/writing/publishing.

- Please share what you hope the mentor/mentee relationship will be like, and how you envision the mentor will help achieve your goals.

- Please list 3 to 5 personal, one sentence writing goals that you believe the Utah/Southern Idaho Mentorship Program could help you achieve: