

The Mohawk article

1. Where is Leo at the start of the story? Leo is at the barber getting his hair done.

2. What was the name of Leo's old school? Leo's old school was called South Central primary

3. How does Leo feel about his haircut when he first gets it? Leo did not really feel confident in himself.

4. What motivated Leo to get a mohawk? Leo was not that popular, so he wanted a change and a big one.

5. Have you ever considered something different about you (your hair)? I have always wanted straight hair, my hair can be a pain sometimes. I love straight hair.

There, They're and Their

There was once a boy called Leo, he was one of the kids in school, who did not stand out like those kids who would win prizes, or would be part of cool kids, or who would be part of the bad kids...He was the quiet one. It had been to join a new school for Leo. There had been a big change in Leo's hairstyle. He got a mohawk. They're heading to school.

Find the definition

Unasked - not asking a question and not answering

Solidarity-Expressing support to each other, in other words helping and being kind to one another.

Drastic-Having a massive change in something.

*I had a drastic change before and after my braids.

*My friends show solidarity to me....

*I can tell my parents are mad when they have a look on their faces, and I know that's an unasked question.

*Word Scramble

*Leo went to meet his mum and brother at the library.

He spent the whole summer growing his hair, and now it's all gone.

The new school was larger than South central primary.

The day started with the assembly so that the principal could welcome the students.

Leo used gel to spike his mohawk back up after he slept on it.

Digging dip

Which event is most significant?

I think that the most significant part would be when Leo was reading the site that was given to him by Matua. And the part where Leo found out that Matua was one of those people on the site.

