

BASIC PITCH: Danny Hebert from Worm triggers with a low level Master powerset that causes female capes to lust after him, amplifies the powers of female parahumans he sleeps with and keys him into their biggest turn-ons/kinks. He is NOT OK with this but suffers through it because COMEDY/DRAMA.

RULES OF DANNY'S POWERS:

1. Target must be a woman (includes trans women and non-binary femmes, natch)
2. Target must be 18+ (this is mostly to keep the lolis away; don't get me started)
3. Target must be a cape or be related to capes
4. Target must not already be related to him (sorry incest fans)
5. Target must have kinks that Danny can reasonably fulfill
6. Target's powers scale up in proportion to the amount of sex she's having with Danny; the more she fucks Dan, the stronger her powers get
7. Sex with Danny is addictive for Target but otherwise she is fully in control of her actions
8. Target must not already be in a healthy relationship (as defined by the presence of mutual respect and trust in each other, open communication, and mutual respect for boundaries; so while Brandish would be considered a target for Danny's power, Battery is not)

EXAMPLES OF POTENTIAL CAPES FOR DANNY TO SLEEP WITH, THE MAXIMUM BOOSTS THEY COULD GET, AND THEIR KINKS:

- Miss Militia (able to equip an entire army with tinkertech and is granted full immunity to her own projections; kinks are impregnation, pregnancy sex, and having kids)
- Brandish (able to wield bigger and more destructive hard-light weapons for longer periods of time; kinks are double/triple-penetration, exhibitionism, and sex in public spaces)
- Bakuda (can build more esoteric and powerful bombs as well as "non-/less-than-lethal" varieties of her bombs, including/especially the ones she gets from sleeping with Danny; kinks are submission (with appropriate safeguards/safe-words and aftercare in place, natch), Daddy Dom/little girl play, praise, and consensual degradation)
- Purity (her beams/blaster abilities can now level continents, be seen from orbit/other galaxies and be sustained for months on end if necessary; kinks are room destroying sex, hair pulling, creampie, and loud/extremely vocal sex)
- Squealer (can build more robust and resilient vehicles that can run more fuel efficiently and potentially go mano a mano against the Endbringers; kinks are romantic sex, sex on the beach, hand-holding, and gentle sex)

CRITICAL QUESTIONS THAT STILL NEED TO BE ANSWERED (comment in thread or in this doc's comments; please keep flame wars out of here!):

- How did Danny trigger?
- What is the PRT's/Protectorate's official stance on him?
- How does Taylor feel about this?
- How about Cauldron?
- How does Danny initially discover his powers?
