

Hello, Utopia Bagels of New York,
I came across your business on YouTube shorts as organic content, and as a bagel enjoyer I would love to help grow Utopia Bagels of New York, and I immediately became interested in the wide selection of bagels you offer– especially the pizza bagels that you custom make upon request.

Before we begin, allow me to introduce myself, my name is Robert Esparza IV and I am a 16 year old self-employed growth consultant, and a junior attending a private high school, who aims to help grow your business even more by implementing advertising to spread the word about your Nationwide Shipping

I have noticed the lack of advertising on Nationwide Shipping and your merchandise, and I had to do some digging to learn about your Nationwide Shipping and merchandise. I would like to discuss a couple of ideas over a sales call to let more people know about the merchandise and shipping so they won't have to do so much digging. Reducing the amount of digging your audience will have to do will bring more people to purchase your bagels and will make your name more well known.

If you are interested in my offer to discuss some ideas, then let's set up a sales call so you can see if I could potentially be a valuable partner in helping you grow.
