Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like

And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.

Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
	ı

Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.

Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
	ı

Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.
Describe a modern building you like.	Describe a modern building you like.
You should say:	You should say:
Where the modern building is	Where the modern building is
When you first saw the modern building	When you first saw the modern building
What the modern building is like	What the modern building is like
And explain why you like the modern building.	And explain why you like the modern building.