

SAFE SPACES COMPARISON

GREEK LIFE / SORORITY HOUSES

- Indoors
- Both a community of people and a physical space
- Somewhat like minded
- Community that isn't available to everyone
- Not central to campus, but easy to access

FRIENDS

- Community of people
- Provides feedback
- Like minded
- May not be available to everyone

TWITTER

- Online
- Community of people (social network)
- May not be available to everyone
- Ability to find a like minded community within larger community
- Ability to build a personal profile

DORMS

- Indoors
- Dwelling place
- Both a community of people and a physical space
- Can be like minded
- May not be available to everyone
- Different locations that are mostly central to campus
- Not very quiet
- Attempts to build a sense of community (floors in particular)
- Can be separated based on gender to further sense of community (Reid)

OFF CAMPUS HOUSE/APARTMENT

- Indoors
- Dwelling place
- Can be both a community of people and a physical space
- Can be like minded
- May not be available to everyone

- Not central to campus
- Can be quiet or noisy

FNAR

- Indoors
- Close-knit community of people and physical space
 - Similar responses from other cohort style programs (like architecture)
- Often like minded and similar interests
- Central to campus
- Allows for and fosters interaction between people
- May not be available to everyone
- Somewhat exclusive

MULLINS

- Indoors
- Physical space
- Available to everyone
- Not very like minded
- Quiet – allows space to be with your thoughts/ideas
- Allows for some interaction between people, but does not foster it
- Central to campus

ARSAGA'S LAW LIBRARY

- Indoors
- Physical space
- Available to everyone
- Somewhat niche, which makes it more like minded
- Allows for and fosters interaction between people
- General liveliness provided by strangers
- Central to campus

GARDEN BEHIND AGRI BUILDING

- Outdoors
- Physical space
- Available to everyone
- Allows for both interactions between people and a quiet, semi secluded space
- People watching
- Central to campus