

We respect the privacy of the users of our mobile application (“App”), and is fully committed to protect the personal information that users share with it in connection with the use of our App Kawaii Avatar Maker Anime Girl.

This Privacy Policy (the “Privacy Policy”) is intended to describe our practices regarding the information we may collect from you (the “User” or “you”) when you use our App, the manners in which we may use such information, and the options and rights available to you.

We may collect two types of data and information from our Users:

1. Non-personal Information, It is using internet access and phone state. Internet is used for new updates loading App data from our server. Photos access is used to save created Avatars locally. Personal Information, which is individually identifiable information that identifies an individual, or may with reasonable effort identify an individual, either alone or in combination with other information, or may be of private or sensitive nature. We ask for contacts access for the user to set the caller screen for the a single or multiple contacts.