Title: Workshop on "Preparing PPSC Exam: Tips and Techniques"

Dated: 19th April, 2023

Resource Person: Mr. Gulfam Nawaz Gondal (Gold Medalist) CSS-2011, PMS-2020

The resource person Mr. Gulfam Nawaz Gondal who has appeared in the exam of CSS in 2011 and PMS 2020, shared his journey with students. He talked about his untiring efforts and struggles that he has made throughout this whole journey. He, himself being a role model, advised students not to be afraid of the bumpy road that leads you towards success. He told students that there is no shortcut to success. You have to be serious and enthusiastic in order to achieve your goals. The main focus of Mr. Gulfam was on providing students authentic information and to equip them with helpful skills like time management, smart work, writing, etc. At this point, he advised students by saying:

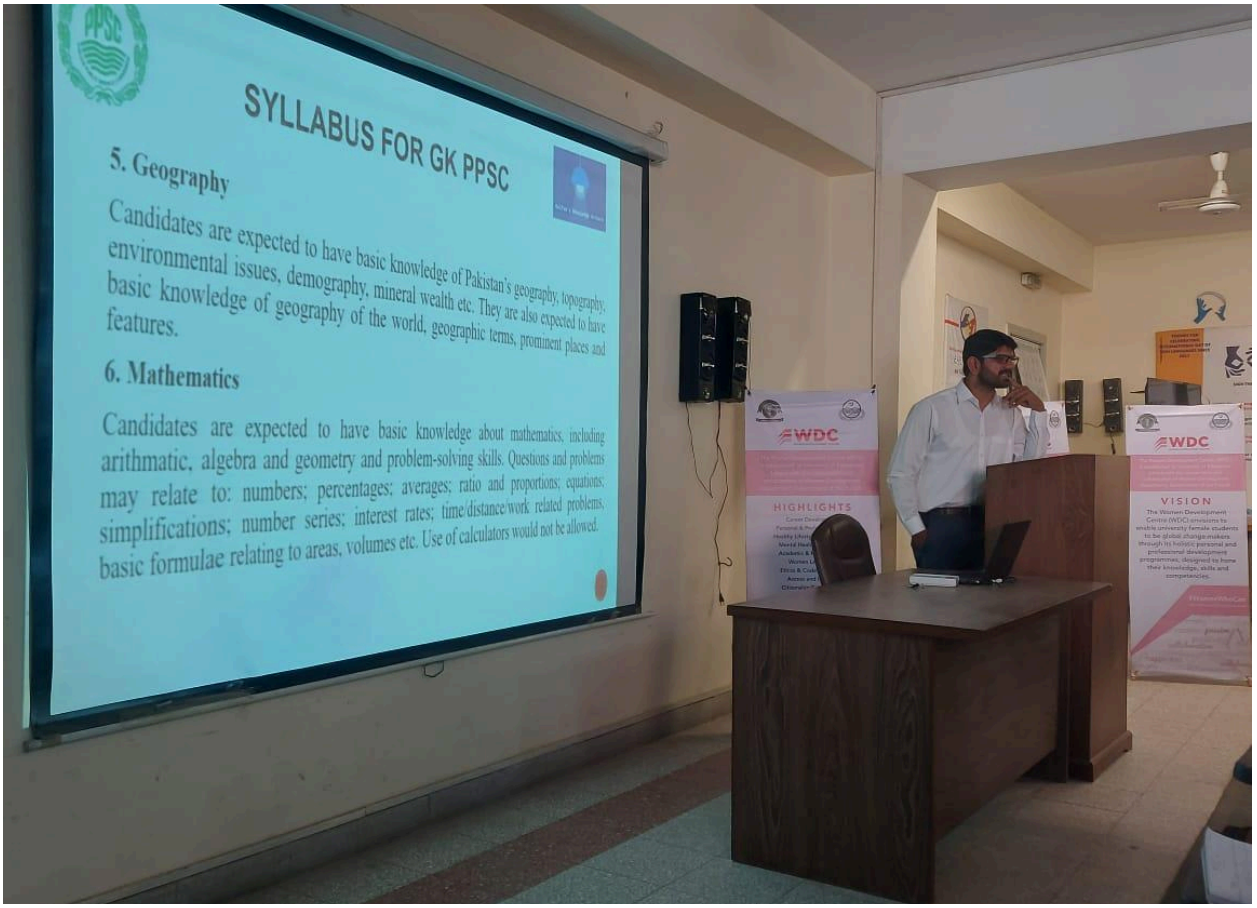

"When you feel like quitting, remember why you started"

Mr. Gulfam not only motivated students to fulfil their dreams only through his words, he also shared some reference books that students can use to prepare for PPSC. He told students that there should be a strong basis of knowledge and keen observation of the current affairs. He also highlighted some specific areas that will help students to perform well in PPSC.

Some of these areas include:

- Pakistan Affairs
- Islamic Studies
- Geography
- Urdu
- English
- Mathematics

The Students participated actively in this workshop by asking questions that helped them solve their problems and any misconceptions about PPSC. Students at the end thanked Mr. Gulfam Nawaz Gondal to take out time for them and Dr. Muqaddas Butt for arranging such a helpful workshop for which they had been waiting impatiently.

Mr. Gulfam Nawaz Gondal ended his talk with this golden advice:

"You just have to use 6-7 hours of each day to pass any hardest test of this world.

The only thing that will help you in this process is consistency.

Be consistent and see where your efforts take you."
