You are Invited!

The Reno Inspiring Connections Outdoors Film Festival
Saturday Evening, November 16, 2024
7:30pm – 9pm
In the Clair Tappaan Dining Room
Popcorn Provided!

The Films:

- Inspiring Connections Outdoors – A 2-minute introduction to ICO from the Sierra Club
- Diversity in Nature – Yosemite Park Ranger Shelton Johnson shares his thoughts on the importance of getting people from all backgrounds out into nature (3 minutes)
- Rock Climbing with Chicago ICO – This video shows kids in action and clearly demonstrates the value of ICO (3 minutes)
- CBS 48 Hours Profile of an ICO whitewater river trip in 1999 with Oakland Technical High School – Includes footage of Madelyn Pyeatt, an ICO pioneer, Cherokee Indian, and Oakland Tech Trails Club advisor for over 30 years. (7 minutes)
- Spirit of the Peaks - a film about Lakota skier Conner Ryan, who balances the nature experience with his culture, the land, and its people. (41 minutes)

There will be two facilitated audience discussions during the festival.

This event is free – Tax deductible donations to Reno ICO are welcome

Scan here to donate →

Reno Inspiring Connections Outdoors (ICO) promotes individual growth through group activities, environmental and outdoor skills education, and leadership development for youth and young adults. We partner with schools, community groups and mission-driven organizations to provide safe and enjoyable outdoor adventures and experiences and to create a local youth-centered outdoor and environmental community. We are focusing on providing targeted equitable access to the natural world so that all young people in our community appreciate and care about our natural environment.