

IN A MILLION WORDS OR LESS... TELL ME ABOUT YOUR SCHOLAR!

Dear Parents,

It's the beginning of a new school year and I am asking you to complete a homework assignment. This is your chance to tell me all about your child. In some cases, it can take a great deal of time to get to know your child. With your help you can enable us to learn some things at the very start of the year. This assignment may include your child's strengths, weaknesses, interests, work habits, family situation, etc. In other words, include whatever you feel is important for me to know.

Your comments will be valued and confidential. I understand that open communication is an essential component in providing the best learning opportunities for your child. Working as a parent-teacher team, I would like to build on the information you provide to make this year as successful as possible.

Take your time with this, but there must be a deadline. Please get In a Million Words or Less to your homeroom teacher no later than Monday, September 20th. You can either send it with your child or email it to the teacher.

Thank you for your time and effort. I look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

The Third Grade Teachers
