

How to add yourself to the Doerr Course Announcements Slack Channel (#course-announcements):

1. Ensure that you are in the Doerr School workspace (at the top left of your slack window). If you are not part of the workspace, see how to join below.

2. Go to your Channels list

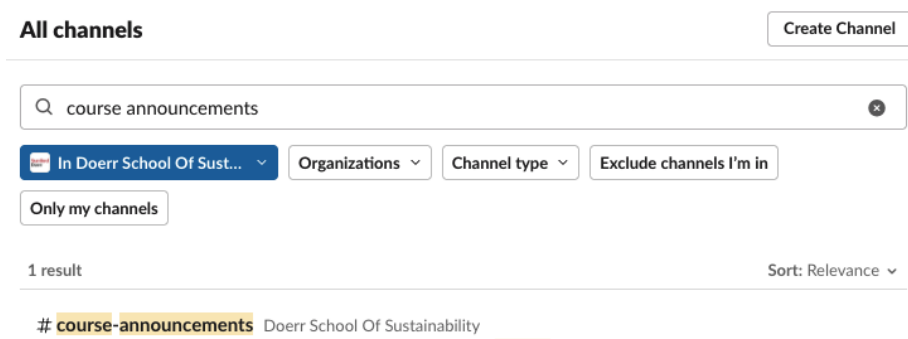

3. At the bottom of your channels list, select "Add channels"

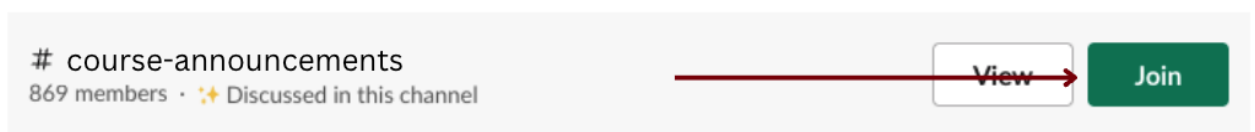

4. Select "Browse channels"

5. Search "course announcements"

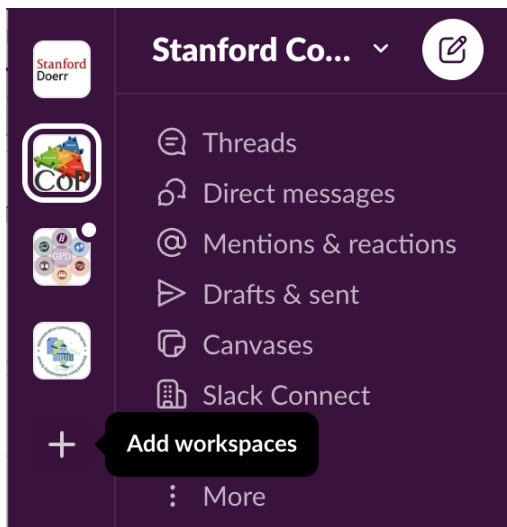

6. Hover over the #course-announcements channel
7. Select the "Join" button on the far right

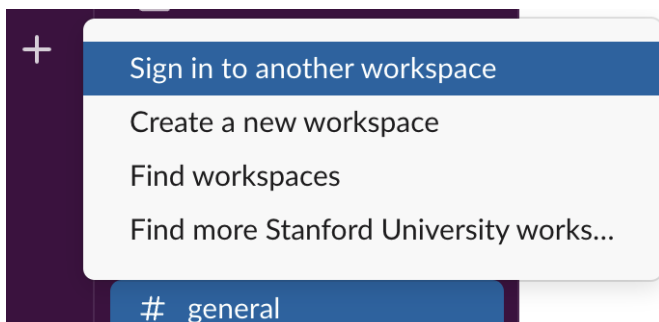

How to add yourself to the Stanford Doerr School of Sustainability Slack Workspace:

From the slack desktop application:

1. Hover over “Add workspaces” at the bottom of your current workspaces list at the far left of your slack window

2. Select “Sign in to another workspace”

3. This will direct you to a login page on your default web browser
4. Select that this is a workspace within Stanford University

Choose a workspace

We'll add the workspaces you choose to your desktop app.

1 selected

Open →

Stanford University

Your stanford email will appear here

5. Select “Open →”
6. You will be asked for the workspace you wish to join's url. Enter “doerr-sustainability” and hit “Continue”
7. You will be asked if you wish to “Open Slack?”
8. Select “Open Slack”
9. You should be in the Doerr workspace!

From a web browser:

1. Navigate to doerr-sustainability.slack.com on your web browser
2. Log in to slack with your stanford slack credentials
3. You should be in the Doerr workspace!