Faith Alliance by OutFront Kalamazoo

The Faith Alliance is a group of congregations and religious institutions that fosters justice, inclusion, and healing at the intersection of faith and LGBTQIA+ identity.

To be approved for membership, the religious institution must either:

- Demonstrate a commitment to being open and affirming, as shown through public statements on digital and printed materials that the religious institution welcomes and celebrates the participation of LGBTQIA+ people in all levels of leadership, including affirming marriage equality and conducting same-sex weddings.
- OR be able to articulate plans/steps being taken to bring about these changes.

Members of the Faith Alliance commit to:

- Attending monthly Faith Alliance meetings.
- Promoting the mission of the Faith Alliance.
- Assisting with accomplishing the goals of the Faith Alliance.
- Helping to plan, and attending, Faith Alliance events.
- Giving material support to the membership, which can include giving time and/or resources to OutFront Kalamazoo.
