3) The Powers of The Forum

This Forum may be assembled by any member, or any Justice to review any case, from any time, and recommend a ruling. The Forum mandated by this bill may not have binding power, and exists only to mend the gap between the people and the Justice Department that is inevitably created by effectively limiting the bureaucracy inside the department, This Forum shall have no official legal power.

4) The Supreme Justice and The Forum

While the Supreme Justice may ignore the findings of The Forum, The Supreme Justice should only do so when they feel as if the findings violate the constitution of the Republic. As the function of the Forum is to ensure that Judicial Decisions are in line with the thinking of the People and the Government. The Ignoring of a decision may be used as grounds for impeachment of the Supreme Justice.
