

Hello friend-o! I hope you are as excited for Lion Swap as I am! :3 My DNWs are pretty straightforward. I'm ok with swearing, violence, gore, mindfuckery, etc... For the / requests please feel free to make it as smutty/explicit/nsfw as you want! I've written a bunch of rambling crap here that could be read as prompts, but if something else comes to mind, really I'm sure I will love anything you create for me. If you want to get more ideas feel free to visit my tumblr (lotors-saltwife)

Fandom 1: Voltron: Legendary Defender

Relationship: Allura/Lotor

This is my OTP. The beautiful people. The ultimate power couple. I feel like they would be UNSTOPPABLE together, like if they did join forces the universe (*cough*Zarkon*cough*) better watch the fuck out. I like the idea of them developing some kind of grudging respect for each other (through interactions in battle or whatever) that turns into something more in spite of common sense. You know. Now fight; now kiss. :v I could see Lotor being sort of awed at just how strong and accomplished Allura is, and then sort of trying to fight down these ~feelings~ and then, and then... I realize I am in a tiny kayak paddling out to sea but if you write me some Lotura I will be a happy woman.

Relationship: Haggar & Zarkon & Lotor

The dysfunctional space fam. So much potential for angst. I would love to see how these three interact, past or present, as whatever passes for a family for them... Give me all the Lotor pain, please and thank you.

Relationship: Haxus/Sendak

No one can tell me they were not a thing. If you can somehow fix them dying and let them have a smutty reunion I'd be over the moon. Or just something set before the unfortunate (for them) events of season 1. PS. Haxus tops.

Relationship: Sven & Slav

I love Sven. I almost died when he appeared in s3. And badass Slav was just... hilariously perfect. I would love to read anything about their adventures. Maybe something about Slav getting Sven to Space Hospital, and visiting him while he recuperates. :3

Every Reality. They are best friends. :3

Relationship: Lotor & Acxa & Ezor & Zethrid & Narti

I love how these guys all work together and really seem to respect and appreciate one another, and understand one another's strengths. Something speculating on how Lotor recruited them maybe? Early days/adventures, getting to know you stuff? Or closer to present time, maybe team bonding exercises? SPA DAY, ANYONE???

Relationship: Blaytz/Coran

Ok so... I just think they'd be hot together. That's all. That's as deep as this goes. Just... young hot Coran, and the sluttiest Paladin.

Relationship: Ezor/Zethrid

Or, as I like to call their ship, Orange Crush. I think they would be a great couple. Zethrid appreciates Ezor's wit and twisted sense of humour; Ezor likes how Zethrid can rip apart logs with her bare hands... complicated shrug emoji

Relationship: Kova & Narti

Since it really, REALLY looks like it's the same cat that Haggar had, I'd love to hear some theory as to how she ended up with him, and/or how they forged that bond they have now. Or just some cat shenanigans. Like Kova won't stop throwing up hairballs in Acxa's shoes or something. Or a trip to the Evil Space Vet.

So that's it that's all! Like I said, my ideas are just ideas - a jumping off point. Have fun and I'm sure I'll love whatever you create! Thank you! :)
