The Summer 2020 EYG Open

Tournament Management
This is a tournament brought to you by the leadership of the EYG community. It will be run by tournament admins on the EYG community server and you can reach them at anytime by tagging @tournamentadmin.

How do I sign up?
By joining the EYG community server https://discord.gg/VRQ5YKv and filling out a form by passing through our gateway to the application zone.
Twitter for the tournament to follow is @EYG_FamilyCoC

Key Dates

Applications Open	Sun 19th July
Applications Close	Fri 7th Aug
Clans Announced	Mon 10th Aug

Note - You have to be 18+ to join this discord server and you will be asked to link your clash of clans accounts on arrival to the gateway to our bot to enter the server, please be respectful to everyone in the server and treat people like you would like to be treated since it is a very large and diverse server. Our tolerance for nonsense is minimal on the server. When joining the gateway simply state that you are here for the tournament, answer any questions they may have when joining and link your main clash of clans account to our server bot. You will not gain access to the main server and be able to complete the application form until this is complete.

Master Roster
You will be required to give a master roster as part of your application of between 5-8 people. A player can only play one account in this tournament, one account per player and one account per player per team. Trying to get around this will result in removal from the tournament. We will require all player tags and the account name for tracking purposes. There will be a discord room available with all the master rosters posted in one spot for referencing once clans are accepted. There are no transfers or adds, however you may sub by approval of your opponent or admin if there is a valid reason. You should take a screenshot of your opposition agreeing to a sub so there would be no issues. In an extenuating circumstance such as not being able to continue in the tournament an admin may grant a clan a one time roster add.

Tournament Structure -

There will be 2 divisions in the EYG open that will both follow roughly the same format.

1. 5v5 EYG Pro League Division

2. 5v5 Evolve Division

The difference in these two divisions being the EYG Pro League is a tournament which any fairplay clan in the game can enter. At the moment there will be a $500 winners prize & a $50 MVP prize for this division. This prize pot can grow.

The 5v5 Evolve Division will be an entry level tournament run alongside the EYG Pro League for less known or entry level clans who want to compete having a set schedule so they can grow as a clan and make that step up instead of being thrown right into the deep end. Common sense will be used to determine if you are suited to the Evolve division. If you are unsure which division you should apply to feel free to discuss your situation with a tournament admin and they will guide you in the right direction. There will be a $150 prize for the winners of this division.

By signing up your team you agree to play all your group stage matches between 1pm-9pm EDT between Mon-Sun of the week where your match is scheduled. You can negotiate your war times for the whole of the group stage and they must be posted with a confirmation ✅ by your opponent by the Saturday of the week before in the #matchscheduling room so the schedule for the following week can be posted to streamers by Sunday night. If it gets to the point where an admin needs to be added to your negotiation chat to set a time the admins will simply read the negotiation history and select a time that is non-negotiate. If the time is rejected the clan rejecting the set time will forfeit.

We are aiming to be a very fast paced, quick thinking tournament with a fixed prep day length of 15 minutes and a fixed battle day limit of 30 minutes. The tournament is strictly expected to follow the structure of hits listed below. The time 30-20 means you must start your hit within this time frame, however the hit does not need to finish in this time. A little overlap on hits will be expected given the fast nature of this tournament. Yes it is fast out of the gate for the first hit but that's what you agree to by signing up. There is no home or away teams in this.

Hit Times for EYG Pro Cup & The Evolve Cup

30-20 Clan A and Clan B must both have a hit started
20-15 Clan A and Clan B must both have a second hit started
15-10 Clan A and Clan B must both have a third hit started
10-5 Clan A and Clan B must both have a fourth hit started
5-0 Clan A and Clan B must both have a fifth hit started

Failure to keep to these schedules will have repercussions. A minor strike will be applied to a clan for failing to hit in the correct time but still hitting within 1 minute of the expected hit times. If a clan has two minor strikes in one match it's an automatic one star deduction. No % will be deducted. Slight accidents with timings can happen which is why we are granting two minor strikes per match instead of one to hopefully avoid handing out forfeits.

A major strike will be issued by a hit being more than 1 minute outside the scheduled hit time. A major strike will be -1 Star in the given war with the infraction, no % will be deducted. The only exception is an extenuating circumstance so you need a damn good excuse like an update dropping in the middle of war. Sometimes things happen out of our control. What qualifies as an extenuating circumstance will be decided by admins on a case by case basis. Sufficient screenshot evidence of the battle day map must be provided for any protest to be successful. If sufficient screenshot evidence is not supplied the protest will be thrown out.

If a team hits out of order, the other team should keep to the schedule and not wait for the team hitting out of order to finish their attacks. A little overlap on attacks is expected as this is designed to be full on quick thinking action for 30 minutes solid with a different twist to other leagues out there.

If someone spins an unrostered or unapproved account by accident then it's up to the opponents to decide if the hits will count in prep day. The issues must be brought up straight away.

We do not want to give infractions but they will be strongly and consistently enforced so it is the same for everyone involved.

Tiebreakers

Group Stage
First tiebreaker will be stars scored
If stars scored are even there will be another war. The rescheduled war will be 15 minute prep and 15 minute battle day free for all with no hit times.

Knockout Stage
In the occurrence there happens a draw in the knockout stages the match will be replayed. The replayed match will be a 15 minutes prep and 15 minute battle day free for all with no hit times.

Live Draws - Groups and rounds may be drawn live on stream and will be done randomly, there will be no seedings in the draw.

Media - Anyone with the purple streamer/youtuber role on the EYG community server can cover any war they wish. Clans have to accept streamers and will be removed from the tournament if they refuse to accept an approved streamer into their clan. There will be a channel in the discord server with a full list of approved streamers and their tags. Streamers can choose to organise streaming with clan leaders or just turn up before prep day starts to gain access to a clan Streamers must be in clan before prep day starts, clans can choose to reject media if a streamer is applying to a clan after prep day starts. All media must also use the EYG and Top

End building logo and shoutout the sponsors of this event before war starts in prep day and when war ends.

Using unapproved streaming media will mean you are effectively forfeit that match. If you wish to use streaming media not on the EYG server you must get approval from a tournament admin in advance of the match and if approved it will be for one match only.

By signing up your clan you agree that from the R16 onwards until the end there will be standardised war times to meet. If there is a R32 knockout round once the tournament structure has been finalised the times for the R32 wars will be added to the schedule. All knockout rounds will be done by a random live on stream draw after each round so there is no predicting of paths by the end Thursday of each week.

Note. The evolve cup will start before the EYG cup and run on a different schedule so there is minimal overlap with the leagues competing with each other.

EYG Pro Cup Schedule

- In the group stage for the Pro Cup there will be 72 teams with 18 groups of four teams.

Group Stage Live Draw Mon 10th August

Week 1 Mon 7th Sept - Sun 13th Sept (Negotiated War times)
Week 2 Mon 14th Sept - Sun 20th Sept (Negotiated War times)
Week 3 Mon 21st Sept - Sun 27th Sept (Negotiated War times)

The 18 Group winners will advance to the round of 32.

The 18 group runners up will go into the randomly drawn R48 wildcard round draw as well as the best 10 3rd placed clans in the group stage.

It is possible that pro playoffs will be pushed a week so the schedule can be relaxed a little bit.

Week 5 Mon 21st Sept - Sun 27th Sept (Negotiated war times)

Live Round of 24 Draw Mon 28th Sept
Times for the following rounds TBA

All match times in the Evolve Cup are to be negotiated between leaders. If leader can't agree on a time a tournament admin will just set a time the clans have to accept and get on with the match. The semi finals and final may have set times and be back to back to back to generate the hype. #FinalsDay

Note Any set times will only move for ESL related obstruction. Any other reason will not be accepted unless it's a special case.

Prizepool and Giveaways

- A winning team prize pot of currently $500 for the EYG Pro League which can still potentially grow will be given to the winners. If you'd like to become a sponsor please reach out to a tournament admin.
- A winning team prize pot of $150, $100 of Clash Champs store credits for the Evolve Cup winners.
- A $50 MVP prize for the best hit in the grand final of the EYG Pro League will be awarded with the best hit being selected by a vote on a streamer channel streaming the final.
- A prize for upset of the group stage of the pro cup will be awarded. A shortlist of 3 upset results will be submitted to the EYG community server from the EYG Pro League, then there will be a public vote on the EYG community server to determine who will receive some custom made bases. TBD how many bases this prize will be. The winning team can choose any town hall level.
- Stream giveaways. Custom made bases plus cash prizes will be handed out during selected big matches and draw streams. Keep an eye on the EYG Twitter for further information regarding this.

- Anyone interested in further boosting the prize pool or interested in sponsoring a specific giveaway or draw is encouraged to contact an EYG admin for further information and have a logo / bio of what you want ready.
- You must have paypal to claim all cash prizes.
- To claim base related prizes you must go through the base building organisation Sponsoring the event. EYG Tournament admins will guide you into the right direction.

By signing up your clan you agree to all of the above rules and to also follow all Supercell TOS.
