

THE RELATIONSHIP ROSTER CHALLENGE

[\[ENROLL HERE → \$97 \]](#)

Go from no dates to attracting 2–3 commitment-ready men—in 6 weeks.

There are two types of women this challenge is for.

Type 1: You haven't been on a real date in a while. You go out, but men barely notice you. You're completely overlooked.

Type 2: You're talking to someone—but it's dragging, inconsistent, and going nowhere. You're stuck hoping one man finally follows through..

Type 3: You're getting attention—but not from men on your level. The ones showing up aren't the ones you actually want, and the ones you want aren't showing up at all.

No matter which one you are, you don't need another maybe.

You need men you actually like—who are actually showing up.

That's exactly what this challenge is for.

In just 6 weeks, you'll:

- ✓ Get approached by men you're actually attracted to—in real life or online
- ✓ Get asked out (not just chatted with) by men who follow through
- ✓ Learn how to keep things going after the first date, so it doesn't fizzle out
- ✓ Attract 2–3 commitment ready men who want to pursue you with effort
- ✓ Know how to handle multiple men at once—without guilt, pressure, or confusion

You won't be guessing. You'll be dating—with movement, attention, and options.

Whether you haven't had a date in years... ..or you're stuck talking to one man who's not making a move ...this challenge shows you what to change, and how to start seeing results fast.

You'll stop:

- ❌ Being overlooked in public spaces
- ❌ Talking to men who never make a move
- ❌ Waiting weeks for one man to "decide" what he wants
- ❌ Ending up in texting loops or situationships that go nowhere
- ❌ Feeling like the only women getting dates must know something you don't
- ❌ Entertaining men who aren't on your level just because they're the ones showing up

And you'll start:

- ✅ Being approached in real life by new men who actually make plans
 - ✅ Getting dates on the calendar, not just conversations in your inbox
 - ✅ Knowing how to ask for what you want—without scaring anyone off
 - ✅ Building a dating life that doesn't dry up after one promising moment
 - ✅ Choosing who gets your time based on consistency, not chemistry

Inside the Challenge, You'll Learn:

- ✅ How to make men feel safe approaching you—without having to "do the most"
- ✅ What to do on the spot when a man notices you or starts conversation
- ✅ How to keep him interested between dates—without overgiving or overexplaining
- ✅ How to know if a man is emotionally available early (without trauma dumping)
- ✅ How to rotate multiple men confidently, without guilt or confusion
- ✅ What to say when things start to fizzle—and how to reset or move on with power
- ✅ How to stop attracting low-effort men and start getting the ones you actually want

This challenge is NOT for you if:

- 🚫 You want a husband by next month. This builds the skill that gets you there—not the timeline.
- 🚫 You're not willing to actually leave the house, get on apps, or change how you're showing up.
- 🚫 You want 1:1 coaching. This is a group experience with live calls and a private community.

If that's not you—you're in the right place. Keep reading.

By the end of this challenge...

You'll go from barely being seen to getting steady attention.

From hoping one man gets it together to managing 2–3 men who are showing up.

From settling for whoever notices you to choosing from men who are actually on your level.

You'll stop "figuring it out" on your own—and finally know how to meet, date, and keep quality men in rotation.

THE RELATIONSHIP ROSTER CHALLENGE: WEEK-BY-WEEK BREAKDOWN

Here's exactly what you'll learn, practice, and walk away with each week. This isn't theory. Each week, you'll take simple, repeatable actions that lead to actual men, actual plans, and real movement in your love life.

KICKOFF CALL + PRE-WORK

Get in motion before Week 1 even starts.

You'll complete a short assignment to start shifting how you're seen—and where your energy might be shutting men out.

Then we'll meet live to break down exactly what's been keeping you stuck, what quality men are really looking for, and what changes when you stop waiting to be chosen.

✓ You'll walk away with:

- A clear baseline of why your current dating approach isn't working
 - Visibility warm-ups you can use immediately (even if you're not outside much)
 - A personal plan for how you'll show up each week to get real results

✓ WEEK 1: GET NOTICED

Start getting seen—without changing your body, pretending to be outgoing, or doing the most.

You'll learn how to walk into any room and be approached—even if you're with friends or just running errands. This week is about stopping the "invisible" pattern so men actually notice you're available.

Inside this week, you'll learn the H.E.A.T. Framework—my 4-part system for shifting from invisible to magnetic, before you say a single word.

✓ You'll walk away with:

- Real moments where men look at you, compliment you, or try to start a convo
 - Tools to stop blending in and start standing out in your day-to-day life
 - Ways to show you're approachable without forcing smiles or performing

✓ WEEK 2: GET APPROACHED

Learn what to do when a man notices you—and how to keep it going.

You'll create spark and draw in the kind of men you want. You'll learn what to say when a man starts a conversation, how to show interest without overdoing it, and how to move things forward without feeling desperate.

Inside this week, you'll learn the Three Energetic Embodiments—the exact shifts that make quality men feel pulled toward you instead of just looking your way.

✓ You'll walk away with:

- 10+ new interactions or touches from men (in person or online)

- At least one approach from a man you're actually attracted to
 - What to do if a man approaches too awkwardly, aggressively—or too timidly
 - How to make it clear you're single and open, without having to initiate

WEEK 3: GET PURSUED

Stop things from fizzling—and start getting asked out consistently.

This week teaches you how to get past the texting stage. You'll learn how to pace your energy, how to stop overexplaining, and how to hold space without giving too much too soon.

Inside this week, you'll learn the B.O.M.B. Experience—how to create the kind of connection that turns "we should hang out" into actual plans, dates, and pursuit.

You'll walk away with:

- 1–2 men pursuing you with real effort (dates, plans, checking in)
 - Clarity on how to know if a man is serious—without having to guess
 - What to do if things start to fizzle or feel unclear
 - How to ask for what you want—without explaining, over-justifying, or shrinking it down

WEEK 4: GET OPTIONS

Learn how to build and manage a rotation—so one man doesn't hold all your hope.

This is where you move from having one "maybe" to choosing from real options. You'll learn how to keep things going, how to tell who's worth it, and how to date more than one man with ease and boundaries.

Inside this week, you'll learn the R.O.Y.A.L. Method—my framework for evaluating men quickly so you keep the right ones in rotation and release the wrong ones without guilt.

You'll walk away with:

- A roster of 2–3 men (or an active plan to keep adding)
 - Tools for vetting—so you're not dating the same low-effort man in a new outfit
 - How to be clear about your needs without scaring men off
 - What to do when a man starts out strong but slows down

INVESTMENT

The full 4-week Relationship Roster Challenge is $97.

4 weeks. 6 live calls. A private community. A full dating strategy. $97. That's it.

You'll get:

- Live weekly coaching with Torah

- A private Circle community to connect with the other women in the challenge—share wins, swap stories, and stay in motion between calls
