

ANSAR

The Stormeyed Moki

Rumors tell of a creature who dwells in the desert, seeking any corrupt creature it can. They say it can eliminate any prey they find without fail. They also say it has never missed a single shot and can see through sandstorms. The only eyewitness to their presence claims they saw a strange figure that looked like a moki. It is because of these traits that they have earned the name The Stormeyed Moki.
