

Make your questions and ask your partner(s).

Experience E.g.: Have you ever been to Europe?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Duration E.g.: How long have you been studying in Vancouver?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Result (finished action) E.g.: Have you read this book yet? YET/ALREADY?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Together with you partner(s) discuss the difference between each pair of sentences (permanent / temporary action, experience, finished action, recent action, etc):

1. I've been visiting Canada for two years. -
2. I've visited Canada twice. -

1. She has been writing emails since she got up.
2. She has written three emails since she got up.

1. I have been painting the house.
2. I have painted the house.

1. I have been working as a waiter for the past week.
2. I have worked as a waiter before.

1. Have you drunk whiskey?
2. Have you been drinking whiskey?

1. This tree has stood here for 200 years.
2. This man has been standing here for 15 minutes.