II. Summaries and Announcements

Repeat for each aDC you have

Domain Coordinator:

Charity is a big part of MES. No one has stepped up offering to coordinate, so I'm going to name our charity as "stuff organizations" such as Goodwill, VA, Habitat for Humanity...places you can donate your gently used items to find a new home rather than filling dumps. Let me know if you'd like to have a role in our Domain charitable efforts...perhaps you'd like to be aDC Charity?

Anyone interested in taking up the mantle of aDC in Training (learn how to someday replace me) or aDC Quartermaster (learn where all of the game site resources are, how to help setup/teardown...don't do it yourself, hire other people to do it!)

ADC Facebook:

We're giving 5G to any Domain member who engages the Facebook site by posting, sharing, RSVPing each month. Additional engagement worth +1G on top. The idea is to reward making us appear active on FB to help recruit. If people outside our Domain want the awards too, I'm happy to report it if you give me your MES#. We appreciate you too.

*Coordinators: Please remember that Storytellers cannot award prestige. ST's please make your recommendations to your Coordinator to include on their coordinator report. Coordinators not including their (V/D/R)ST's prestige in their report (or a note that they did not report) means that the report is incomplete.

*Awarding Domain Coordinator Prestige: Please remember that you cannot award yourself prestige. Instead, include any recommendations for yourself to the RC in the "Recommendations to Regional" section of your monthly regional status report.

XII. Notes

I have decided not to run for DST again. If someone would like to work with me over the coming month, I'd be happy to train someone. Having committed every other weekend to this hobby for the last seven years, I've decided to free up some time and pursue other interests. Quit is a bit too strong of a word. It's more that I don't plan to participate.

That also means that we aren't inclined to host games at our house. The site in Scottsdale seems to be working well and is affordable so that likely will continue in the new year. If you don't like it there for whatever reason, by all means hunt for new locations!
