

Article Tittle

[Center, Bold, Times New Roman 14, Maximum 14 words, Initial latter of each word must be capitalized,
Spacing: After 12pt]

^{1*}Author 1, ²Author 2, ³Author 3, dst..

[Center, Times New Roman 10, Bold, *correspondence author, spacing: after 6 pt]

¹Author Affiliation 1, Author Affiliation Address

[Center, Times New Roman 9, Bold,; after 6 pt]

²Author Affiliation 2 (If different from author 1)

[Center, Times New Roman 9, Bold,; after 6 pt]

Email: first author email¹, second author email², dst.

*Corresponding author: author¹ (example)

Received :
Accepted :
Published :

ABSTRACT

[Center, Times New Roman 9, Bold]

Abstract is a summary of the contents of a report or paper that is written briefly and concisely and clearly. Abstract consists of 100 to 250 words. Abstract writing is written using justify paragraph or left and right alignment. All foreign terms are written in italics. The content in the abstract must be informative, explaining the problems raised and the solutions obtained.

Keywords: Keyword 1, Keyword 2, Keyword 3, Keyword 4, Keyword 5

[Keywords consist of at least 5 words that are related and represent the content of the research. Separated by commas]

This is an open access article under the CC BY-SA license

1. INTRODUCTION

[Center, Times New Roman 12, Bold, written in CAPITAL LETTERS]

Article created using Microsoft Word, single spaced, font size is 10pt, font type is Times New Roman, consists of at least 6 pages. The introduction is written without subtitles which contains an explanation of the background, hypotheses, and research objectives. If there are terms in a foreign language, they are written in italic format. Please describe the issues raised in the research. At the end of the introduction, describe the research objectives that you want to achieve from your research.

2. RESEARCH METHODS

The research method contains the stages or sequence of activities used while doing the research. Written briefly, concisely, and clearly. This section consists of the research approach, the subject of the study, research procedures, use of materials and instruments, data collection and analysis techniques. Some of the criteria used by researchers in collecting and analyzing research data must be explained, including the quality of the instruments, research materials, and procedures for collecting data.

2.1 Subtitles 1 [Times New Roman 10, Left]

2.2 Subtitles 2

2.3 Subtitles 3

2.4 Subtitles 4

If there is a table in the article, it is written in the following format:

Table 1. Example Table Tittle

[Times New Roman 10, Center, The tittle is placed above the table, spacing: before dan after 6 pt]

No	Type of Method	Number of Partisipan
1	Discussion	10
2	Presentation	5

Fundamental and Applied Management
Journal •

Figure 1. Logos FAMJ

It is expected to use good quality figure and provide a brief explanation of the figure outlined in your article.

3. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

In section 3, namely Results and Discussion, contains the results obtained from the research conducted. This section also contains an explanation of the results obtained. This section occupies up to 60% of the entire body of the article. The results of data analysis can be represented using tables, graphs, variables, or a combination of them. The following is a portion of the article.

Table 2. The proportion of sections in terms of length

No.	Name	Length in Percent (%)	Notes
1	Introduction	20	Including title and abstract
2	Research Methods	10	Or reach up to 15% for this type of quantitative research
3	Results and Discussion	60	Minimum
4	Conclusions	10	Around 10% of the entire article

3.1 Subtitles 1 [Times New Roman 10, Left]

If there are subtitles numbered, then use lowercase and alphabetical letters as follows:

- a. Subtitles Section 1
- b. Subtitles Section 2

If there is still a scope of parts of the subtitles section, then write down the numbering using numbers such as:

1. Scope 1 of the subtitles section 1
2. Scope 2 of the subtitles section 2

3.2 Subtitles 2

4. CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The conclusion explains the summary of the research that answers all the problems raised in the research. The contents of this section are written in paragraph form, not point by point. The suggestions explain the proposals for further research to further refine the results of the research that has been done. Conclusions and suggestions consist of a minimum of 200 words.

5. NOTE (THANK YOU NOTE)

This section is optional. If you want to add, this section is written in paragraph form, not numbered. This section contains acknowledgments to those who have provided financial assistance for the implementation of your research.

REFERENCE

Writing references or bibliography MUST be written using Reference Manager Software, such as Mendeley with APA format, Times New Roman font size 10. References used are national or international scientific journals, the latest books, research results, proceedings, research reports, or patents in for at least the last 5 years.

Book in order writing:

Author, year, book title (must be written in italics) volume (if any), edition (if any), publisher name and city of publisher

Example: Castleman, K. R., 2004, Digital Image Processing, Vol. 1, Ed.2, Prentice Hall, New Jersey

Translation book in order writing:

Original author (first name, middle. (abbreviated), last. (abbreviated)), year of translation, title of translated book (must be italicized), volume (if any), edition (if any), (translated by: translator's name) , the name of the translation publisher and the city of the translation publisher.

Example: Gonzales, R., P. 2004, Digital Image Processing, Vol. 1, Ed.2, translated by Handayani, S., Andri Offset, Yogyakarta

Library in the form of article in scientific magazines:

Writing order: Author, year, article title, magazines name (must be italic as the official abbreviation), number, volume, page.

Example: Yusoff, M, Rahman, S.,A., Mutalib, S., and Mohammed, A. , 2006, Diagnosing Application Development for Skin Disease Using Backpropagation Neural Network Technique, Journal of Information Technology, vol 18, hal 152-159

Bibliography in the form of article on the internet (citation of internet article that are not complete with author)

Printed version of scientific magazine:

Writing order: Author, year, article title, magazines name (must be italic as the official abbreviation), number, volume, page.

Example: Wallace, V. P. , Bamber, J. C. dan Crawford, D. C. 2000. Classification of reflectance spectra from pigmented skin lesions, a comparison of multivariate discriminate analysis and artificial neural network. Journal Physical Medical Biology , No.45, Vol.3, 2859-2871

Online version of scientific magazine article with the order of writing:

Author, year, article title, magazines name (must be italic as the official abbreviation), number, volume, page and website address.

Example: Xavier Pi-Sunyer, F., Becker, C., Bouchard, R.A., Carleton, G. A., Colditz, W., Dietz, J., Foreyt, R. Garrison, S., Grundy, B. C., 1998, Clinical Guidelines on the identification, evaluation, and treatment of overweight and obesity in adults, Journal of National Institutes of Health, No.3, Vol.4, 123-130, :http://journals.lww.com/acsm-msse/Abstract/1998/11001/paper_treatment_of_obesity.pdf

General article with the order of writing: Author, year, article title, website address (must be written in italic), accessed by date ...

Example: Borglet, C, 2003, Finding Association Rules with Apriori Algorithm, <http://www.fuzzy.cs.uniagdeburg.de/~borglet/apriori.pdf>, accessed by date 23 February 2007