

You never stub your toe standing still. The faster you go, the more chance there is of stubbing your toe, but the more chance you have of getting somewhere.

Charles F. Kettering

God is the silent partner in all great enterprises.

Abraham Lincoln

All doors are opened to courtesy.

Thomas Fuller

If you chase two rabbits, both will escape.

Unknown

Never trust your tongue when your heart is bitter.

Samuel J. Hurwitt

It is better to light one small candle than to curse the darkness.

Annon

There must be labor, incessant and constant, if there is to be a harvest.

Gordon B. Hinkley

Don't find fault, find a remedy.

Henry Ford

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

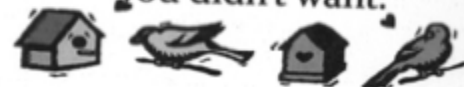

Why not go out on a limb?
Isn't that where the fruit is?

Frank Scully

Character is much easier kept than recovered.

Thomas Paine

If you haven't all the things you want, be grateful for the things you don't have that you didn't want.

Be sure you put your feet in the right place, then stand firm.

Abraham Lincoln

The thing that counts most in the pursuit of happiness is choosing the right traveling companion.

Adrian Anderson

Don't wait until people are dead to give them flowers.

Sean Covey

At times we may be tempted to think the Savior is oblivious to our trials. In fact, the reverse is true; it is we who need to be awakened in our hearts to His teachings. Use your ingenuity, your strength, your might to resolve your challenges. Do all you can do and then leave the rest to the Lord.

Joseph B. Wirthlin

"Tomorrow's blessings and opportunities depend on the choices we make today."

President James E. Faust

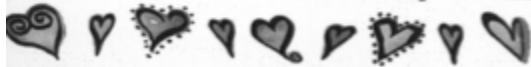

He who is grateful sits at a continual feast.

"When we love the Lord, obedience ceases to be a burden. Obedience becomes a delight. When we love the Lord, we seek less for things that benefit us and turn our hearts toward things that will bless and uplift others."

Elder Joseph B. Wirthlin

Nauvoo Notes

No matter what a person's past may have been, his future is spotless.

Nothing is particularly hard when you divide it into small jobs.

Henry Ford

Once you learn to quit, it becomes a habit.

Vince Lombardi

Before borrowing money from a friend, decide which you need the most

American Proverb

Never make a promise in haste.

Mahatma Gandhi

It always seems impossible until it's done.

Nelson Mandela

Nothing is particularly hard when you divide it into small jobs.

Henry Ford

Fear not that thy life shall come to an end, but rather fear that it shall never have a beginning.

Cardinal Newman

"We are content to study and testify of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ as an atonement for our sins, but we hold tenaciously to those things in our lives that can prevent us from offering a little sacrifice of our own."

President Ludwig - 2009

"I do not think the Lord expects immediate perfection of us, but I do believe he expects immediate progress, and with that progress comes consecration. I believe that he recognizes and appreciates every step we take forward, however small it may be, striving to put our whole souls on the altar of sacrifice."

"I remind you ... that regardless of your present age, you are building your life; ... it can be full of joy and happiness, or it can be full of misery. It all depends upon you and your attitudes, for your altitude, or the height you climb, is dependent upon your attitude or your response to situations."

(Kimball, Ensign, Nov. 1974, 80)

I will govern my life and thoughts as if the whole world were to see the one and read the other.

Gordon B. Hinckley

If ever you make a mistake of judgment, let it be on the side of mercy.

Joseph Fielding Smith

How seldom we weigh our neighbor in the same balance with ourselves.

Thomas A. Kempis

Even a happy life cannot be without a measure of darkness, and the word happy would lose its meaning if it were not balanced by sadness.

Carl Gustav Jung