

HOW MUCH IS YOUR HOME WORTH (Email/Social Post)

Subject: Is this the right time to sell your home?

Hi [First Name],

Wondering how much your home is worth in this crazy sellers market?

If you've been thinking about selling your home, you may not see values like this for another 10+ years!

Homes are literally selling for $50-$100K+ over asking... in 1 day!

Buyers are even willing to do lease backs in many cases, so you can keep living in your home until you find another home.

If you've been considering downsizing or if you have a revenue property, this also a great time to sell!

No need to do open houses. We're getting multiple offers with site unseen!

Buyers are making offers with no appraisal, home inspection or financing conditions.

If you've ever wanted to cash in on your property for top dollar, this is it!

But this rare opportunity will not last forever.

As soon as rates go up and COVID fears dissipate, the buying frenzy will be over.

Don't kick yourself for missing out!

To find out how much your home is worth in today's crazy market, call us today for a free, no-obligation HOME EVALUATION.

We'll give you a detailed analysis, with multiple relevant comparables, including active and sold properties in the same price range with similar homes as yours.

All we need is your address, and you're good to go!

It won't cost you a thing to explore your options, but it could cost you a lot not to.
