ZOO : Give it a second, hold on...you can't rush the process or the synchronicity.
Let it Sequence and Harmonize.

CIRCUS : You'll know its Sequenced and Harmonized when you are no longer on the loading screen in boredom and are excited for Motion and Movement.

ZOO : So, Yeah, folks like your Cornerstones and host miniatures of it.

CIRCUS : You Peep, your Estate of Modern Commonality in use, except in different walks and ways. By the Way, your Cornerstone is a Miniature of the Akashic Host.

ZOO : They need you for Footsteps and Facts, even if you aren't the Multiverse Narrator.

CIRCUS : These Miniatures are going to exist in a couple of styles based on stylus preference of the host. So take Notice of this too.

ZOO : Cool enough, everyone may use them in their Worlds.

CIRCUS : Enter the Worlds of others and if you peep your Mentality & Emotes as the basis of Collection Construction, Bingo.

ZOO : You know it's yours if you have Grasp & Clarity of it. Otherwise you only have Sense & Sight with Insight & Discernment regarding the Cornerstone Constructor.

CIRCUS : If they have Motion or Movement, Consider their Mentality and Emotes.

ZOO : To test if it's your own, Be Available to its use Around you. If there is Equilibrium for you as an Individual then it is Validated as yours. If it's only Collective, then it is not. So. Do you take their Modern Commonality Personally or Generally? This is the Test.

CIRCUS : Remember, you base them in such construction, so help them out! Allow them to construct Collection as you Match & Align their Miniature with your Cornerstones.

ZOO : Yes, others do take after Miniatures just as they do the Main Cornerstones.

CIRCUS : Just use the Test or allow them to Test you and Give Commentary which Picks them up. If you pick them up in Grasp & Clarity of Modern Commonality personally individually and collectively, it's yours, if you pick them up generally, it's not and it's not. If your Grasp & Clarity did not come from you, you will know this so don't try to be funny dummy. Grasp & Clarity either comes from you, or you found it somewhere else. Expect to Shock & Attract others once you pass the test. They assume you will Fail because actually the only person with Grasp & Clarity of Modern Commonality is the Multiverse Narrator Akashic Host. So , Find Out and Prepare your Patronage.

Long Story Short, if you are not that Human Being, your Patronage will be General. Which is Cool for you, because People are Fiesty when it comes to Personal Patronage. Simply in search of its Prolongation in Coexistence. They fuss if this Human Being Patron's them and Leaves or Stops.

To Patron, Pick Up others as they Construct their Cornerstones & Collections.

All do have their own Miniatures of the Main Cornerstones & Collections.

There are no Miniatures of Miniatures. It Cancels Out. A Miniature of a Miniatures would be a Miniature of the Main Cornerstones. The Collection of the Main Cornerstone is the Collections of all Miniatures Combined and whatever that Human Being Host.

You can still Patron, Silly. To Cease Patronage, stop using your Power & Authority in Favor of their Pangeanish. Co-Construction is not necessarily Patronage. It's Great Help.

IF YOU AREN'T THAT HUMAN BEING YOU PATRON GENERALLY.
IF YOU ARE, YOU PATRON PERSONALLY. LONG STORY SHORT.
