

Youth Environmental Press Team

Join the Laurel Chapter of the Youth Environmental Press Team!

Are you passionate about the environment? Do you enjoy writing and sharing impactful stories? The Youth Environmental Press Team (YEPT) is looking for student writers to publish environmental articles!

YEPT is a student-run news source dedicated to environmental journalism.

We are proud to be Ohio's first YEPT chapter!

What We're Looking For:

- Original environmental articles (700-1000 words)
- Articles must be well-researched and engaging
- Original photos with sharing copyright privileges are encouraged

Earn Money for Your Work!

- $100 per article for original, unpublished pieces
- $30 per article for previously published content shared on YEPT

How to Apply:

1. Visit www.yept.org to explore the type of journalism we publish.
2. Submission details are listed here.

This project is generously funded through a partnership with Earth Charter Indiana.

Join us in using journalism to make a difference for our planet!
