

Listening Triads

Assign roles for each round

Round 1	Listener:
	Talker:
	Questioner:
Round 2	Listener:
	Talker:
	Questioner:
Round 3	Listener:
	Talker:
	Questioner:

Talker

- ❖ Explain your ideas about the question
- ❖ Give evidence and examples

Sentence Frames

I think .. because..
When we did .. I noticed that ...
When we did .. I noticed that...
My reason for saying this is ...
This connects to .. so ..

Questioner

- ❖ Ask the talker questions to get them to explain more.

Sentence Frames

Why do you think that?
Can you explain how this is connected to ...?
Can you say more about ..?
I agree, but I wonder?
What would someone who disagrees with you say?

Listening Notes: Take notes in the space below when it is your turn to be the listener. Write the words you hear. Record only what you think are the main points or good points.

Listener	Talker	Questioner
<input type="checkbox"/> You take notes while the other members are talking. <input type="checkbox"/> You are not distracted by other things. <input type="checkbox"/> Your notes only show the main ideas and key details of the conversation	<input type="checkbox"/> You speak in complete sentences and try to use sentence frames or other academic language <input type="checkbox"/> You explain your ideas <input type="checkbox"/> You give evidence and examples <input type="checkbox"/> You speak for the entire minute	<input type="checkbox"/> You ask questions that get the talker to explain more <input type="checkbox"/> Your questions show that you are listening