

College and Career Website List

Career Search: What do you want to do for a living?:

<https://www.mynextmove.org/>

ACT TestNav Tutorial:

<http://actaspire.pearson.com/exemplars.html>

Different Types of Aid for College:

<https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/types>

Standardized Tests for College:

<https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/prepare-for-college/tests>

Financial Aid at a Glance:

<https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/sites/default/files/aid-glance-2019-20.pdf>

PSAT Information and Practice Test:

<https://collegereadiness.collegeboard.org/psat-nmsqt-psat-10>

Beat the Sophomore Slump!:

<https://blog.collegevine.com/how-to-beat-the-sophomore-slump-in-high-school/>

How to Prep for Standardized Tests:

<https://blog.collegevine.com/time-management-tips-to-make-the-most-of-your-test-prep-time/>

Scholarship Websites

Scholarship Finder in 30 Minutes or Less- <https://www.goingmerry.com/>

Going Merry is also an app! This service has national, local, and school-specific scholarships so you don't need to spend time browsing dozens of random sites. This site has millions of dollars of scholarships available with hundreds of new scholarships added every week. There are thousands of scholarships with no GPA requirement. You can see only the scholarships in which you're eligible.

Federal Student Aid Free Scholarship Search-

<https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/types/grants-scholarships/finding-scholarships>

Scholarships Free Search - <https://www.scholarships.com/>

This site is free. They have over $19 billion in scholarship money and grants to be given to students. This site is updated monthly so that scholarship searches are considered to be "live".

Fastweb Free Scholarship Search - <https://www.fastweb.com/>

This site is free. They have $3.4 billion in scholarships to be given out. This site is updated monthly so that scholarship searches are considered to be "live".

Free Scholarship Information - <http://www.finaid.org/>

This site does NOT have what is considered to be a live scholarship search, however FinAid.com is one of the most well-known online resources for finding out more information regarding scholarships and financial aid you are qualified to receive based on your income, age as well as your previous education schooling you have completed. Although there is not currently a live search to find various scholarships that you are qualified for or that you may be interested in pursuing yourself, it is possible to seek out additional information regarding the authenticity of scholarships being offered and how to determine whether an opportunity is credible and legitimate before applying and submitting your own personal information.

Collegeboard Free Scholarship Search -

<https://pages.collegeboard.org/scholarship-opportunities-from-collegeboard>

The College Board has transformed into a massive database of more than $3 billion worth of various scholarships that are available and that have been awarded to students around the world.

Scholarship Monkey Free Scholarship Search - <http://www.scholarshipmonkey.com/>

Using ScholarshipMonkey.com is free and only requires a few minutes to register to become a member. The site itself claims to have helped more than 1 million students altogether to find scholarships and opportunities to help them with affording and attending the college of their choice. Although using ScholarshipMonkey.com, it is important to manually opt-out of sharing your information and personal data with other companies and third parties via email or by requesting your information be stored privately by sending a handwritten or typed letter. Once you become a member of ScholarshipMonkey.com, your information may be shared with other companies and educational institutions that are currently offering scholarships of their own.

Sallie Mae College Planning Scholarship Search - <https://www.salliemae.com/college-planning/>

SallieMae has shared more than $18 billion worth in scholarships with millions of students since it began providing resources and opportunities to online users and students nationwide. They conduct a monthly drawing that awards a student a $1,000 scholarship just for registering at this site!

Zinch Free Scholarship Search - <https://www.chegg.com/scholarships>

Zinch is one of the most recent resources available online to help with comparing different scholarships available in all fields and industries today. Using Zinch is free and easy, as the service has provided more than 5000 different scholarships worth more than $1 billion altogether.

Cappex Scholarship Search and Application assistance - <https://www.cappex.com/scholarships>

Cappex is another huge directory of scholarships totaling over $11 billion in funding. It offers a frequently updated database, so you can find exactly what you're looking for. But Cappex doesn't just offer a scholarship database. It also gives advice on the college application process, offers college reviews, and provides overviews of different majors.

Niche Find College Scholarships - <https://www.niche.com/colleges/scholarships/>

Niche offers a user-friendly directory with no required sign-up process. One of its best categories is the "Easy to Apply" filter. Here, you can search for scholarships that don't have an essay, GPA, or recommendation requirement.

7 Full Tuition Scholarships

→ 1. Gates Millennium Scholars - <https://gmshp.org/>

The Gates Millennium Scholars program covers unmet financial need for African American, American Indian, Alaska Native, Asian Pacific Islander American, and Hispanic American students. You need to have a GPA of at least 3.3, along with a commitment to service and leadership. To win the Gates Millennium Scholarship, your school needs to nominate you. You also need to answer several essay questions. If you think you could qualify, speak to a teacher, counselor, or your principal about next steps.

→ 2. Intel Science Search- <https://student.societyforscience.org/intel-isee>

The Intel Science Search is a national contest for aspiring scientists and mathematicians. Before winning scholarship money, you must participate in a long-term research project. Projects could be in computer science, environmental science, engineering, or biochemistry, among other fields. The Intel Foundation awards one winner with $75,000 and other finalists with scholarships of varying amounts.

→ 3. Jack Kent Cooke Foundation College Scholarship -

<https://www.jkcf.org/our-scholarships/>

This merit-based scholarship goes to high-achieving students with financial need. The selection process is similar to the college admissions process. The scholarship committee looks at your grades, test scores, extracurriculars, essays, and recommendation letters. Winners get up to $40,000 each year for tuition, books, room, board, and other fees.

→ 4. Microsoft scholarships -

<https://www.unigo.com/scholarships/all/microsoft-scholarship-program/3165>

Microsoft awards a variety of scholarships, some of which cover the full cost of tuition. To qualify, you must plan to study computer science, science, technology, engineering, or math. Winners have a strong academic and extracurricular background, along with demonstrated financial need.

→ 5. SMART: Science, Mathematics, and Research for Transformation-

https://smartscholarshipprod.service-now.com/smart?id=kb_article&sys_id=3db0a713dbbd0300b67330ca7c96197c

This scholarship goes to aspiring STEM students who are interested in a career in national defense. Winners are expected to do a summer internship and work for a period as a Department of Defense civilian. The scholarship comes in the form of a cash stipend of $25,000 to $38,000 per year, depending on what degree you're pursuing, and includes health insurance.

→ 6. USDA 1890 National Scholars Program -

<https://www.outreach.usda.gov/education/1890/>

The United States Department of Scholarship offers this full-tuition scholarship to students planning to attend one of the 1890 historically black land-grant universities, like Alabama A&M University or Tennessee State University. Winners have a record of leadership, plus they plan to study food, agriculture, natural resource science, or a related discipline. USDA scholars get summer jobs and potential employment with the USDA after graduation.

→ 7. Dr. Pepper Tuition Giveaway- <https://www.drpeppertuition.com/program-details>

The requirements for a $100,000 Dr. Pepper scholarship are unique. First, you need to post your goal to change the world on Facebook. If you get 50 likes, then you make a short video. A committee reviews all the videos, and winners receive prizes anywhere from $2,500 to $100,000 for tuition.

How to get a full-tuition scholarship

The scholarships on this list are rare finds. They come from private organizations, and you can use most of them at any university. So, how can you get a full-tuition scholarship from one of these private organizations? Most are merit-based and require a strong academic and extracurricular background. If you're applying, you need to start early to put together the strongest application you can. Produce thoughtful essays, and connect with your recommenders to get outstanding references.