

CATHOLIC SCHOOL COUNCIL MEETING GUIDELINES

Time limits for agenda items should be respected in order to permit meetings to end on time.

Decision making will be by consensus whenever possible.

All speakers and opinions are to be respected.

All meeting participants are to be open minded and objective.

The interests of all students as well as the entire school community are to be considered at all times.

Individual students, parents and/or staff are not to be discussed and any such concerns should be addressed in private to the specific teacher or to the principal.

Thank you.
