1. For every purchase I've made on BookWalker.jp, I've earned "coins". I can use them on my next purchase to get a discount.

My current balance is 38 coins, and I need to use them by the end of October. After that, they're going to expire.

2. How can you earn coins? Basically, every manga you purchase on BookWalker shows an amount of coins next to the price.

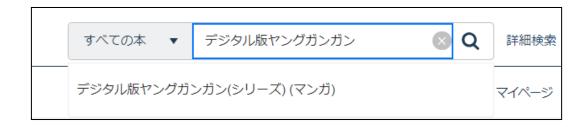

This is the price for Young Gangan – 440 ¥

And right below, the amount of coins you earn by purchasing one digital edition – 4 coins.

3. Ok, now let's search for any manga magazine, like Young Gangan. On the top right, there's a search bar.

Copy this text in Japanese (デジタル版ヤングガンガン) and paste into the search bar, then press "Enter".

4. The next page is going to show all the past and currently numbers of Digital Young Gangan. On the bottom of every cover, you see two buttons: the left button reveals a small preview (less than 30 pages), and the right one is "add to cart".

5. By clicking on a cover, a new page will open. You can see details such as summary (who's the model on cover, featured series), price and amount of coins. Click on the green button to add to the cart.

6. To checkout or view cart, go to the top right and click on cart icon.

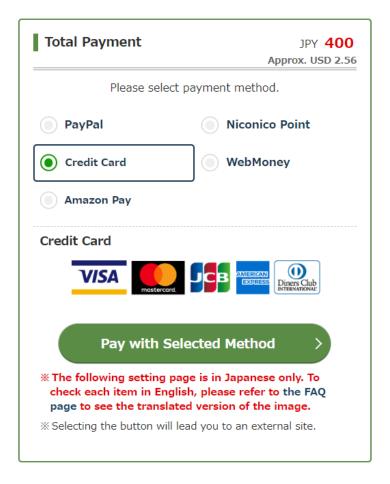

7. The next page will be like this one. To select the payment method and complete the purchase, click on the orange button.

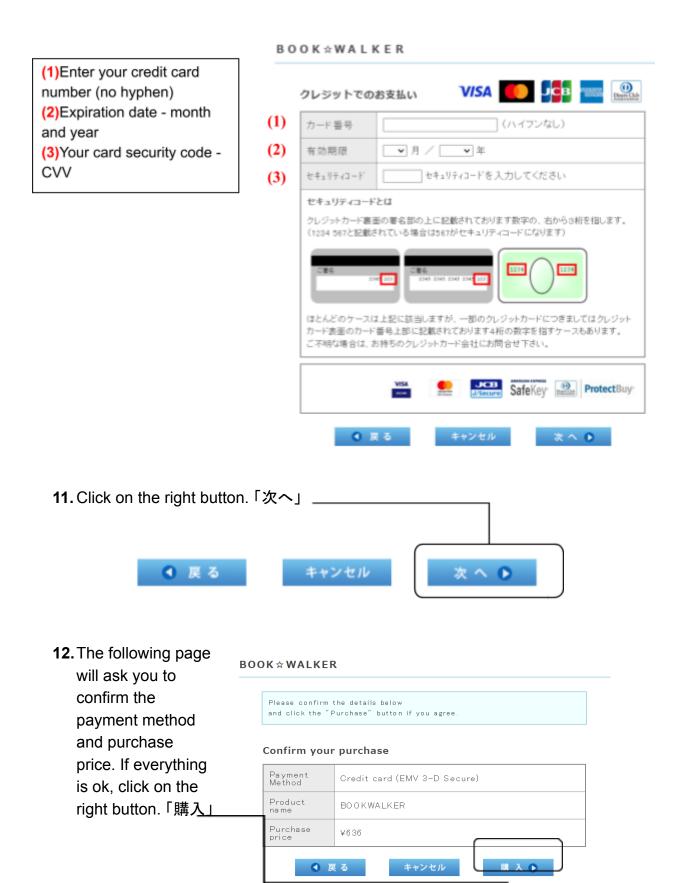

8. Luckily, you can change the language of this page to English!! LOL Just go to the top right and click on Language, then choose English!

9. Now you can choose the payment method (Credit card, Paypal, Amazon Pay, Niconico points, Webmoney).

10. As for credit card, you can see the following page.

P.S.: This ¥636 it's not Young Gangan price, it's just another magazine I bought to make this tutorial.

13. This payment method may differ considering the country you live in. My bank requires that before I complete any international purchase with my credit card I must open the bank app and confirm this transaction with my password.

Purchase is now complete. Now, click on the button「戻る」below

13. On the next page, click on the button「今すぐ読む」

There's no need to download any other software, your purchase can be read on a web browser.
