♡ If you are unable to be patient/wait for the art please choose NOT to commission me.

♡ Please do not assume that I am not going to finish it, rude things, etc. It upsets me to see people assuming these things just because I take my time.

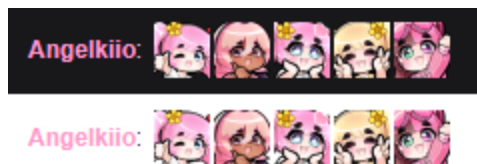

♡ I always take my time to do commissions. If you still want to commission me knowing all this, that is your decision that you made yourself and I am 0% responsible for any inconvenience that you may cause.

- ♡ You can ask for updates but please do not rush me or be too annoying.

If you receive the commission and you do not notify me of these types of situations, I will assume everything was OK and you received the commission.

I used 112x112 pixels to the best quality on Twitch, here are some examples.
