

Cdim            G7
But she had to go and lose at the Astor,
C
She didn't know exactly who to blame.
E7    Am                 Am7
And she couldn't say just how or when she lost it.
D7    G7
She only knew she had it when she came.

G7
 They questioned all the bellboys and porter.
       C                              C7                              F - A7 - Dm
 The chef appeared to be the guilty guy.
           F                              Fm                              C - Gm - A7
 And the doorman also acted quite suspicious,
           D7                              G7                              C
 But he coyly said: "I'm sure it wasn't I".

G7
 But she had to go and lose at the Astor,
       C
 She nearly killed her mother and her dad.
           E7  Am              Am7
 Now they felt as bad about the thing as she did.
           D7  G7
 After all it was the only one she had.

G7
 They just about completed all their searching.

(SLOWING)
           C                              C7                              F - A7// - Dm//
 When the chauffeur walked up with it in his hand.
           F//                              Cdim//
 All they did was stand and gape,
           C//              Gm//  A7//
 There was Minnie's sable cape...

(In Tempo)
           D7  G7  C      G7// - C//
 And she thought that she had lost it at the A - stor____,