

Shared Notes for the 3rd Ready to Read New Hampshire Training Childcare Providers

March 17, 2022

Building Early Literacy Skills through Songs, Rhymes, and Books

What else do we know about Early Childhood Educators that will help us present the workshops?

In NH you can have 3 kids in your home w/o needing a childcare license- home based care increasing due to covid

Logistics (timing, promoting, etc.) for these workshops:

Thoughts & Tips on facilitating workshops in-person:

Adaptations of workshops for virtual delivery:

-

Shared Notes for the 3rd Ready to Read New Hampshire Training Childcare Providers

Other Tips or Challenges you want to share in regards to the the workshops:

Pick a rhyme or song and share what actions & tips you'd connect to the 5 practices with in regards to an age range:

For example:

Banana Rhyme - Toddlers

Talk - telling the story of a banana from picking to eating; Narrative Skills.

Read - Seeing the banana felt piece; Decoding Skills.

Sing - Rhythmic chanting & sound effects; Phonological Awareness.

Write - Using fingers & hands; Fine Motor Skills.

Play - "going bananas;" Enjoying all of the above, establishing a love for literacy.

Books you love to sing aloud!

Shared Notes for the 3rd Ready to Read New Hampshire Training Childcare Providers

Songs/Rhymes and Books you love to use for PLAY:

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Tips & Resources: (add website names and links)

<https://diversebookfinder.org/>

Shared Notes for the 3rd Ready to Read New Hampshire Training Childcare Providers

Group Book Selections: How you choose to present It using 1-2 of the 5 practices: