

UNITED STATES
MEDIA LITERACY WEEK
 EST. 2015 | HOSTED BY NAMLE

Public Media professionals at Rhode Island PBS and The Public’s Radio are available to visit high school classrooms during Media Literacy Week, October 21-25!

Review the speakers and topics below and contact Colleen Kenyon, Director of Education Services to request a visit for your class by Friday, October 11.

Please note that we will do our best to accommodate all requests and may need to limit schools to one visit.

Speaker	Topic	Day and Time Options
Jan Boyd , Chief Content Officer	Interview 101: Ask, Prepare, and Execute!	Scheduled
Barbara Dury , Executive Producer, News and Current Affairs	The Importance of Local Journalism and Informed Communities	Tues, 10/22 afternoon
Elisa Iacono-Mears , Senior Events Manager	Using Media to Promote and Produce Events	Scheduled
Pam Johnston , CEO	Our Changing Media Landscape	Scheduled
Justin Kenny , Senior Producer, Rhode Island PBS Weekly	Local Journalism: Spark to Story	Tues, 10/22
David Lawlor , Arts & Culture Producer	Drones in Journalism	Scheduled
Ross Lippman , Arts & Culture Producer	Inside the Process of Storytelling	Scheduled
Bria Medina , Producer	Generation Rising: Amplifying Community Voices	Scheduled
Pamela Watts , Host/Reporter, Rhode Island PBS Weekly	Community News Reporting	Scheduled
Nancy Wood , Chief Progress Officer	Building Trust: Transparency in Public Media Fundraising	Scheduled