

LCSSA President Stanley Cox has been in the league since fall of 2014. His service to the league started in 2016 as a Selection Committee member. He became Vice President in 2017 and President in 2023. He has watched the league grow every year.

Stanley was born in Charleston, raised in Hanahan and has lived here all his life. He is married to Alyse Scarpa Cox for 39 years. He has two sons, Chanler & Cameron; one daughter-in-law, Amelia; and two grandchildren, Rus & Goldie.

Stanley retired from United States Army in November 2007. His last assignment was Recruiting and Retention Sergeant Major for the South Carolina Army National Guard. Stanley then transitioned as a military contractor until October 2020. He has been retired since,

Stanley follows the Atlanta Braves, South Carolina Gamecocks, and Clemson Tigers. Besides being a sports fan he enjoys spending time with his family and serving his church.