- Email #2 - About

Subject Idea: Who is NAME/FIRM NAME?

Content:

So that I'm not a random name that keeps popping up in your inbox every week, I wanted to share a quick story about how I started XXXX firm name

*2-8 sentences about how you got to where you are today / why planning matters to you

*Details about personal life - people do business with other people, make a connection

Closing Call-To-Action:

If you feel like you'd benefit from a quick meeting with a financial advisor, here's a link to my calendar: insert calendar link

- Email #3 - Value & Ask

Subject Idea: It's time

Content:

Do you know how much you need to have saved to retire?

If not, don't worry.

A lot of people are in the same situation.

Money's stressful and it can be hard to take the first step & face the realities of retirement.

Luckily, there are some things you can do to prepare:

- Short bullet point checklist with easy tips to help someone feel more confident about retirement
- Asset mapping, beneficiaries, LTC
- Example

I know things like this can feel overwhelming, which is part of the reason I became a financial advisor.

It's my life's mission to help as many people retire with confidence as possible and if you think you'd benefit from talking with an advisor to see if we're the right fit, here's a link to schedule a call:
