

One Hand Survivor Privacy Policy

Effective Date: September 1, 2025

Last Updated: September 1, 2025

1. Who We Are

“One Hand Survivor” (“we”, “our”, “us”) is a mobile game published by Hiraya Manawari #1 (HM1) on Google Play. We are committed to protecting your privacy.

2. Summary

We do not collect, store, or sell any information that directly identifies you.

3. Legal Bases

Google relies on your consent (where required) or its legitimate interests to process data for these purposes. For users in the EEA/UK, AdMob’s optional Consent SDK or your own CMP will present the necessary consent dialog.

4. Permissions Used by The App

Android permission	Why we request it
INTERNET	Needed to download and display ads from AdMob.
ACCESS_NETWORK_STATE (if present)	Lets the SDK know whether you are online before requesting ads.

We do not request any runtime (“dangerous”) permissions such as camera, contacts, or precise location.

5. Children's Privacy

We do not knowingly collect data from children under 13. If we ever designate ad requests as child-directed under the U.S. Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) or Google Play "Designed for Families," personalised ads are disabled automatically by AdMob.

6. Data Retention & Security

Google retains ad-related logs in accordance with its corporate retention policy and deletes or anonymises them after the period stated in its Privacy Policy. Data are stored on secure servers and transferred using TLS encryption.

7. International Transfers

Google LLC complies with the EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework for any transfers of personal data from the EEA, U.K. or Switzerland to the United States.

8. Changes to This Policy

We may update this policy to reflect changes in the game, the law, or AdMob's SDK. When we do, we will post the new version here and update the "last updated" date.
