ABSTRACT

The abstract should be clear, concise and descriptive. The abstract comes after title page in the manuscript. Abstract must be integrated and independent which is consist of introduction and purpose, methods, results, conclusion, and suggestion. However, the abstract should be written as a single paragraph without these headers. For this reason, references should be avoided. Also, non-standard, or uncommon abbreviations should be avoided, but if essential they must be defined at their first mention in the abstract itself. Abstract must be written using 150 until 250 words which has no reference and accompanied keywordsIt is written in 12 pts Times New Roman (single spacing) and preferably not more than 300 words. Abstract consists of: Background: brief background of the topic and significance of the study. Purpose: the major aim of the study. Methods: brief summary of study setting and participants; the study design; major methods used to collect and analysed data, including the proper name of instruments used. Results: the major findings, and Conclusion: conclusions and implications for nursing practice.

Keyword : The keywords should be avoiding general and plural terms and multiple concepts. Do not use words or terms in the title as keywords. These keywords will be used for indexing purposes. Keywords should not more than 5 words or phrases in alphabetical order

INTRUDUCTION (Times New Roman 11)

State the objectives of the work and provide an adequate background, avoiding a detailed literature survey or a summary of the results. Explain how you addressed the problem and clearly state the aims of your study. As you compose the introduction, think of readers who are not experts in this field. Please describe in narrative format and not using sub-chapter.

MATERIALS AND METHODS (Times New Roman 11)

Explain in detail about the research design, settings, time frame, variables, population, samples, sampling, instruments, data analysis, and information of ethical clearance fit test.

RESULTS (Times New Roman 11)

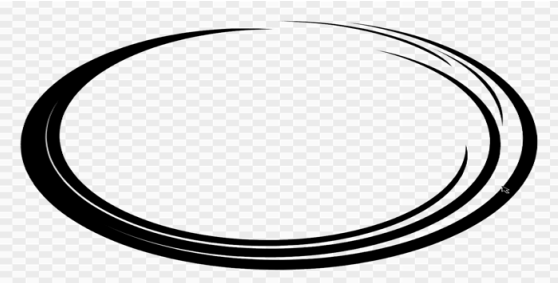

Result should be presented continuously start from main result until supporting results. Unit of measurement used should follow the prevailing international system. It also allowed to present, diagram, table, picture, and graphic followed by narration of them.

Figures and Tables placed separated in last page of manuscript and must be as follow:

Figures, tables, and diagram should be editable ones. Content of the tables should be written using Times New Roman 10 single space and the remarks of tables placed in the bottom with Times New Roman 10, single space and before 4pt.

Figure 1 Example for table, the title of tables should be written first with Times New Roman 11, single space, 11 pt of font size (table and caption located at the middle of the body paper)

Tables

All tables should be numbered with Arabic numerals. Headings should be placed above tables, left justified. Leave one line space between the heading and the table. Only horizontal lines should be used within a table, to distinguish the column headings from the body of the table, and immediately above and below the table. Tables must be embedded into the text and not supplied separately. Table 1 is an example which authors may find useful.

DISCUSSION (Times New Roman 11)

Describe the significance of your findings. Consider the most important part of your paper. Do not be verbose or repetitive, be concise and make your points clearly. Follow a logical stream of thought; in general, interpret and discuss the significance of your findings in the same sequence you described them in your results section. Use the present verb tense, especially for established facts; however, refer to specific works or prior studies in the past tense. If needed, use subheadings to help organize your discussion or to categorize your interpretations into themes. Authors should discuss the results and how they can be interpreted from the perspective of previous studies and of the working hypotheses.

The findings and their implications should be discussed in the broadest context possible. Future research directions may also be highlighted.

CONCLUSIONS (Times New Roman 11)

Conclusion should be explained clearly related to hypothesis and new findings. Suggestion might be added contains a recommendation on the research done or an input that can be used directly by consumer.

Acknowledgement (Times New Roman 11)

This section is compulsory. Grants, financial support and technical or other assistance are acknowledged at the end of the text before the references.
