

True Pace App Privacy Policy

No personally identifiable data is collected. All data saved, including names of races, paces, notes, and so forth are only ever saved locally to your device—they are never transmitted across the internet.

The only thing that is sent to the internet is the number of races created/edited so that app impact and utility may be judged.

Enjoy!