PLACES

Material regarding places includes photographs, professional reports, ownership information, usage information, sales literature. For individual buildings, and particularly houses in Amberley, the information provided may include the following:

- name(s) of the building: the name most commonly used, which may not be the present name; the present name of building (if different); previous name; dates when these name were used
- dates for the building, from its earliest part
- description: everything else, including ownership, with links to relevant downloadable documents
- photographs

All items are downloadable, usually as Word, pdf, or jpeg files.

Places are not included in the list below if all that we have at present are one or two photographs. Such photographs will appear in the Picture Gallery.
