On behalf of [name of authority], public authority competent in the field of Waste Prevention, I hereby agree to take on the role of Coordinator of the European Week for Waste Reduction 2026 (21-29 November 2026) in
.....[name of the area covered] and I agree to the following commitments:

- To adhere to the objectives of the EWWR;
- To inform my competent national authority of my participation in the EWWR (if I am not that national authority);
- To use the EWWR graphic charter and logo only for purposes related to the EWWR;
- Not to modify the official communication tools (except translation and local adaptation, see below) provided for the 2026 edition of the EWWR;
- To make sure that actions registered on the EWWR website by “Action Developers” in your country/region/area fit the official EWWR criteria;
- to provide pictures and videos representing EWWR actions with the agreement of the people featured in the material;
- To nominate one outstanding action per category of Action Developer (Public administration and organisation, Association/NGO and organisation of public interest, Business/Industry, Educational Establishment, Citizen(s)) as well as a nominee for the European Special Prize from the actions registered under my coordination. These actions will enter in the competition for the EWWR Awards. The selection criteria, as provided by the EWWR Steering Committee, are available online;
- As a Coordinator, I will be given access to the electronic versions of the EWWR communication tools. Upon request, I may also have access to the source files to insert the logo of the organising authority or translate the tools to an additional language. I agree to share the translated file with the EWWR Secretariat to make them accessible on the EWWR website. I also agree to use these source files and EWWR communication tools in all formats for the purposes of the EWWR only. I am aware that the translation and printing of these tools (optional) will be made at the expense of the authority that I represent.

I agree to meet the above requirements at the expense of the authority that I represent.
